

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

All bids to be PER LOT as numbered in the Catalogue.

The highest bidder to be the buyer. In all cases of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the Auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims and his decision shall be final.

Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be immediately resold.

Goods bought to be removed at the close of each sale. If not so removed they will be at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges, and The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible if such goods are lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

TERMS CASH. If accounts are not paid at the conclusion of each sale, or, in the case of absent buyers, when bills are rendered, this Company reserves the right to recatalogue the goods for immediate sale without notice to the defaulting buyer, and all costs of such resale will be charged to the defaulter. This condition is without prejudice to the rights of the Company to enforce the sale contract and collect the amount due without such resale at its own option. Unsettled accounts are subject to interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum.

All books are sold as catalogued, and are assumed to be in good SECOND-HAND condition. If material defects are found, not mentioned in the catalogue, the lot may be returned. Notice of such defects must be given promptly and the goods returned within ten days from the date of the sale. No exceptions will be made to this rule. Magazines and other periodicals, and all miscellaneous books arranged in parcels, are sold as they are, without recourse.

Autograph Letters, Documents, Manuscripts and Bindings are sold as they are, without recourse. The utmost care is taken to authenticate and correctly describe items of this character, but this Company will not be responsible for errors, omissions, or defects of any kind.

BIDS. We make no charge for executing orders for our customers and use all bids competitively, buying at the lowest price permitted by other bids.

Priced Copy of this Catalogue may be secured for fifty cents for each session of the sale.

SALES CONDUCTED BY MR. FREDERICK A. CHAPMAN

THE DICKENS COLLECTION

OF THE LATE

DR. R. T. JUPP

TO ask a man to write an introduction to a catalogue such as this, is like asking him to gaze upon a richly spread table,—and not give him an invitation to dinner. Of course we have not forgotten the parable of the rich man, and of the beggar who was content with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table; but who—not a beggar—would be content with such a crumb as the item, listed herein as number ten, for example, while another collector with superb nonchalance carries off number twenty? But such is the way of the world. Fortunately, however, at this feast there is enough to go round.

The dispersal of this superb collection, bristling with “parts,” raises an interesting question. Is the whole greater than the sum of the parts, or are some of the parts greater than the whole? I shall leave it to some one else to puzzle out this point. I content myself with recording my belief that some day, a glorious item like the “Pickwick” in parts, with all the points, will command a price that will make such a luxury as a Handley-Page airship moderate in comparison. For what is “Pickwick” but the earliest work of a young man destined to write his name among the Immortals! “Among the Immortals!” Yes, for in the resplendent firmament of English literature there are only two names I would rank above Dickens for sheer genius: Chaucer and Shakespeare. And I make this statement with the less hesitation for the reason that it passed unchallenged,—was applauded almost,—when I made it something over a year ago in London. But that story must begin a new paragraph.

That learned and kindly “Wanderer in London,” E. V. Lucas, was giving me a dinner, and I was asked to indicate not “when” but “where.” I chose the Garrick Club, and on the appointed evening I found myself next to an old gentleman, one of the handsomest men in London; why should I hesitate to name him?—Sir Squire Bancroft. Well, after the cloth was removed and the nuts and wine appeared, we fell into our anecdotage as men will, and “Sir Squire” challenged attention by saying, “It was at a little dinner in this room more years ago than I like to remember, that I first met Charles Dickens.” To be sitting next to a man who had known Charles Dickens, to hear anecdotes of him at first hand, was, for me, an unusual experience. Several other men then spoke of the great man, and when it came my turn to say something, or at least when I thought I could make myself heard, I boldly spoke of him as one of the three great lights in our literary heaven, expecting to precipitate an argument or at least a discussion, but nothing of the sort followed. On the contrary, Augustine Birrell, that wise old bookman, seemed to acquiesce,—and he is not always acquiescent; and Sir Walter Raleigh, the Oxford scholar, looked benignly at me across the table as though the idea was worth considering.

But to get back to this catalogue. On an occasion like this—a feast where the menu consists wholly of one kind, although served in a variety of styles,—the danger is in the cloying of the appetite. Ordinarily this is not the case. In the usual book sales—for it is mental food we are discussing here—the appetite is stimulated from time to time by the variety of the viands themselves; while in this, it is Dickens from start to finish. But we should remember that when this opportunity passes, with it will pass a chance which in the nature of things can never come again. I shall not venture to give the numbers which are, in my judgment, the most to be desired items; to do so might result in unnecessarily stimulating the bidding and running up the price on myself. Suffice it to say that the Dickens student, lover, or collector, whether he be an authority “according to Eckel” or an enthusiast as my friend the Honorable John M. Patterson, will find something, probably much, listed herein, the possession of which will give him joy and throw him into a fit of benignancy, so that he will exclaim with Tiny Tim, “Good Bless Us (Dickens Collectors) Every One.”

1. ADMINISTRATIVE REFORM ASSOCIATION. Speech of Charles Dickens, Esq., delivered at the Meeting of the . . . at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane, Wednesday, June 27, 1855. 8vo, sewn. London: Effingham Wilson, 1855

THE VERY RARE FIRST EDITION, AND IN THE FIRST STATE, with the word "thundrad" in the sixth line of the speech on page one
GRIP THE RAVEN

19. BARNABY RUDGE. Dickens (Charles). A. L. s., 4 pp. 8vo, Devonshire Terrace, Fifteenth June, 1841. To Angus Fletcher. Announcing the death of Grip the Raven. Inserted in sunken mount, and bound, with transcription of the letter and a full account of Grip, together with typewritten extract from 'Barnaby Rudge,' 4 pp. 4to; [Nov. 12, 1856]. To Macrone the publisher.

A LONG, INTERESTING LETTER BLAMING MACRONE FOR HAVING QUARRELLED WITH DICKENS.

"I sincerely regret you have lost Mr. Dickens. It is a serious mistake. For I look upon him as unquestionably a writer of the first order. I am far from thinking Bentley's terms are at all adequate to his worth. £500 is the minimum value of his Novel: and in my opinion he ought to have £800 for it.—£200 was preposterously small. And you will find that the sale will fully bear out what I now state. Once more, I say, I am exceedingly sorry for your loss. You will not easily repair it," etc.

4. AINSWORTH (W. HARRISON). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo, Jan. 2, 1840. To Mr. Moran. On literary matters; A. L. s., 1 p. 12mo, Jan. 6, 1846. To 'My dear Chevalier,' a friendly letter. 2 pieces.

5. ALLBUT (ROBERT). London and Country Rambles with Charles Dickens: PHILIP (ALEX. J.), Dickens's Honeymoon and Where He Spent it; Charles Dickens, The Story of his Life; SALA (G. A.), Charles Dickens. 4 vols., 12mo, wrappers.

London, v. d.

6. AMERICAN NOTES for General Circulation. 2 vols., 8vo, original brown cloth, uncut. London: Chapman & Hall, 1842

FIRST EDITION, FIRST ISSUE, with the faulty pagination in the table of contents of Volume I. Fine copy.

7. AMERICAN NOTES for General Circulation. Fourth Edition. 2 vols., original brown cloth, uncut (two margins torn in opening). London: Chapman & Hall, 1842

8. AMERICAN NOTES for General Circulation. Thin 8vo, original cloth. New York: Harper & Bros., 1842

FIRST AMERICAN EDITION in book form. The work appeared in two American newspapers the same month, November, 1842.

9. [AMERICAN NOTES.] CHANGE FOR THE AMERICAN NOTES: in Letters from London to New York. By an American Lady. [Henry Wood.] 8vo, original cloth, uncut (one signature sprung). London: Wiley and Putnam, 1843

FIRST EDITION.

10. ARCHER (THOMAS). Charles Dickens. A Gossip about his Life, Works, and Characters. With 18 full-page character sketches, reproduced in photogravure, on India paper, by Frederick Barnard, and other illustrations by well-known artists. Royal 4to, half morocco, gilt edges. London: Cassell, n. d.

11. ARCHER (THOMAS). Another copy, in the original 6 parts, royal 4to, boards, cloth backs. London: Cassell, n. d. when this opportunity passes; ~~with it will pass as a common ware and~~ the nature of things can never come again. I shall not venture to give the numbers which are, in my judgment, the most to be desired items; to do so might result in unnecessarily stimulating the bidding and running up the price on myself. 14. BARNABY RUDGE. A Collection of "Dolly Varden" Music, each with lithographed pictorial covers, all in color except two; also a pictorial front cover of another piece, without the music. 8 pieces.

RARE.

15. BARNABY RUDGE. Play Bills of various Dramatizations by Murray Wood, Watts Phillips, Charles Dillon, Thomas Higgin, and others, performed at various English Theatres. 11 pieces.

Accompanying the above are a number of newspaper clippings of 1780 relating to the riots incident to the "No Popery" resolutions; a Broad-side Poem, "England's Resolution to down with Popery, in spite of France and Spain"; a portrait of Lord Gordon, etc.

16. BARNABY BUDGE. By "Bos." With Illustrations by "Phis." Original pictorial front wrapper of Part I bound in. Thin royal 8vo, full tan calf, gilt top, by Root.

London: E. Lloyd, 1841

Another of the shameless imitations of Dickens.

"GRIP"—THE RAVEN

17. [BARNABY RUDGE.] "GRIP," Charles Dickens' Raven, stuffed and mounted in a glass case, 27 x 25 inches, with rustic ornaments.

PROBABLY THE MOST FAMOUS BIRD IN THE WORLD. Dickens kept "Grip" to study its habits, in order to describe them in "Barnaby Rudge." In the following two numbers will be found letters written by Charles Dickens to George Cattemole, asking his opinion of the idea of having the Raven always attending Barnaby, as the bird was "immeasurably more knowing" than the idiot Barnaby. The second letter relates to the Death of "Grip," describing his last moments and the probable cause of his death.

"BARNABY RUDGE" AND "GRIP" THE RAVEN

18. BARNABY RUDGE. Dickens (Charles). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, January 28, 1841. To George Cattemole.

A MOST IMPORTANT LETTER ABOUT BARNABY RUDGE AND GRIP THE RAVEN.

"I want to know whether you FEEL ravens in general, and would fancy Barnaby's raven in particular. Barnaby being an idiot, my notion is to have him always in company with a pet raven who is immeasurably more knowing than himself. To this end, I have been studying my bird, and think I could make a very queer character of him. Should you like the subject where this raven makes his first appearance?"

"GRIP" THE RAVEN

19. BARNABY RUDGE. Dickens (Charles). A. L. s., 4 pp. 8vo, Devonshire Terrace, Fifteenth June, 1841. To Angus Fletcher. Announcing the death of Grip the Raven. Inserted in sunken mount, and bound, with transcription of the letter and a full account of Grip, together with typewritten extract from 'Barnaby Rudge,' in which the Raven figures. 8vo, full crushed red levant morocco, line-tooled, gilt borders, by Sangorski and Sutcliffe.

GRIP OCCUPIES A PROMINENT PLACE IN "Barnaby Rudge." While Dickens was engaged in writing this novel, Grip died, and he thus describes his death in his letter to Fletcher:

"Grip is no more. He was only ill a day. I sent for the medical gentleman (a bird-fancier on the New Road) on the first appearance of his indisposition. He promptly attended, and administered castor oil and warm gruel. Next day, the patient walked in a thoughtful manner up and down the stable till the clock struck twelve at noon; then staggered twice; exclaimed 'Hal-loa old girl' either as a remonstrance with his weakness, or an apostrophe to Death: I am not sure which—and expired . . . He has left a considerable property, chiefly in cheese and halfpence, buried in different parts of the Garden.

Good Christians say in such cases 'it was all for the best perhaps!' I try to think so,—he had ripped the lining off the carriage and eat the point off the wheels. In the course of the summer while we were at Broadstairs, I think he would have eat it all bodily."

He further speaks of being fearfully hard at work (on "Barnaby Rudge") and of his expected trip for ten days in the Highlands; also of being importuned by the people of Reading to stand for the next Parliament, but he cannot afford it.

20. BARNARD (F.). Original wash Drawings of the characters enumerated below. 5 pieces folio, matted. Signed.

Betsy Trotwood from "David Copperfield"; Uriah Heep, from "David Copperfield"; Pecksniff, from "Martin Chuzzlewit"; Rogue Riderhood, from "Our Mutual Friend"; Caleb Plummer and his blind daughter, from "The Cricket on the Hearth."

THE CELEBRATED PAINTING, "DOLLY VARDEN"

21. [BARNABY RUDGE.] Frith (W. P.). Oil Painting of "DOLLY VARDEN." In gilt frame. Size, 14½ x 12½ inches.

ONE OF FRITH'S MOST SUCCESSFUL PAINTINGS, AND AN EXQUISITE PIECE OF COLORING.

Few characters of Dickens' are better known than the subject of Frith's painting, a sprightly, vivacious girl; and upon Dickens seeing the picture he was so well pleased with it that he commissioned the artist to paint one for him, which Frith did. This latter canvas was sold with other paintings after Dickens' death, at Christie's, July 9, 1870, and it was purchased by Thomas Agnew & Son for £1050. Frith then executed a third portrait of "Dolly" for himself. This painting was sold with the contents of "Bleak House" at Broadstairs, July 5, 1911. Catalogues of both these sales accompany the painting, together with 5 A. L. S. by Frith relating to the picture, also A PENCIL SKETCH OF HIS RECOLLECTION OF "DOLLY VARDEN".

We believe that the first painting is at South Kensington, and that the second belongs to Lord Burton.

22. BATTLE OF LIFE (THE). A Love Story. Engraved frontispiece and title by Maclise; woodcuts by Maclise, Stanfield, Leech and Doyle. 12mo, original red cloth, gilt stamps on front cover and back, gilt edges, yellow end-papers, as issued.

London: Bradbury & Evans, 1846

A remarkably fine copy of the FIRST ISSUE of the FIRST EDITION (or Eckel's second issue), before the cupid was added supporting the scroll, and with the publishers' name and imprint in type on engraved title. THE SCARCEST OF THE CHRISTMAS BOOKS TO FIND IN FIRST ISSUE.

23. BATTLE OF LIFE (THE). A Love Story. Engraved frontispiece and title by Maclise; woodcuts by Maclise, Stanfield, Leech and Doyle. 12mo, original red cloth, gilt stamps on front cover and back, gilt edges, yellow end-papers, as issued.

London: Bradbury & Evans, 1846

FIRST EDITION, Fourth issue, according to Eckel, with the cupid bearing scroll, and no publishers' imprint, on engraved title.

24. BATTLE OF LIFE (THE). Play Bills for various Performances, from December 26, 1846, the dramatization by Albert Smith. 8 pieces.

"The Battle of Life" was only published on December 19, 1846, hence the first Play Bill here offered is FOR THE PERFORMANCE ONE WEEK LATER.

25. BATTLE OF LONDON LIFE (THE); or, Boz and his Secretary. By Morna (Capt. Thomas O'Keefe). Frontispiece portrait, "Boz in his Study," and other illustrations by G. Sala, designed on stone. 12mo, original pink printed boards, uncut (back weak).

London: George Peirce, 1849

Presentation copy, inscribed, "Mrs. Molyneux with the Author's compliments, July, 1850."

26. BIBLIOPHILE SOCIETY. Charles Dickens and Maria Beadnell. Private Correspondence between Dickens and Mrs. Henry Winter (born Maria Beadnell), the original Dora Spenslow in "David Copperfield" and Flora Finch in "Little Dorrit." [Compiled and annotated by John Harrison Stonehouse], edited by Prof. George Pierce Baker. Etched portrait by Bicknell, and other plates on Japanese paper, portraits reproduced from original sketches, one in colors, facsimiles of letters, etc. Royal 8vo, half vellum, uncut. Boston: Bibliophile Society, 1908

One of 480 copies. With additional MS. notes by the compiler.

27. BIBLIOPHILE SOCIETY. Dickens-Kolle Letters (The). Edited by Harry B. Smith. Supplemental to the Letters from Charles Dickens to Maria Beadnell. With 2 etched portraits, both on Japanese paper, one by Bicknell, and facsimile of autograph letter by Dickens. 8vo, half vellum, uncut.

Boston: Bibliophile Society, 1910

One of 483 copies. The earliest letters of Dickens to his friend Henry Kolle.

28. BIRMINGHAM AND MIDLAND INSTITUTE (Address delivered at the), on the 27th September, 1869. By Charles Dickens, Esquire, President. 8vo, original wrappers.

SCARCE.

[Birmingham, 1869]

29. BLEAK HOUSE. With Illustrations by H. K. Browne. In the Original Parts, (20 in 19), green printed wrappers, as issued. London: Bradbury & Evans, 1852-3

FIRST EDITION IN THE ORIGINAL PARTS; FIRST ISSUE, with the slip in Part IX, referring to an accident to one of the plates. One back slightly worn; otherwise a fine clean copy.

30. BLEAK HOUSE. With illustrations by H. K. Browne. In the Original Parts, (20 in 19), green pictorial wrappers, uncut, as issued. London: Bradbury & Evans, Mar. 1852-Sept. 1853

FIRST EDITION IN THE ORIGINAL PARTS. FIRST ISSUE, with the slip in Part IX. A very fine copy, the backs on all the parts but two being unbroken.

31. BLEAK HOUSE. With illustrations by H. K. Browne. Bound in 2 vols., 8vo, green morocco, gilt backs, uncut.

London: Bradbury & Evans, 1853

FIRST EDITION, bound up from the original parts, with original covers and slips preserved. The advertisements, however, have not been retained. The printed title is wanting, otherwise a fine clean copy.

32. BLEAK HOUSE. With illustrations by H. K. Browne. 8vo, original green cloth, uncut. London: Bradbury & Evans, 1853

FIRST EDITION. Back slightly faded, and name on title, but a choice copy, with the "dark" plates in excellent impressions.

33. BLEAK HOUSE. Play Bills of Dramatizations, by J. P. Burnett and Edward Price, performed at various English Theatres. 11 pieces.

Included with the above are: "Jo" Galop, by Edward Solomon; Please give me a Penny. Ballad by W. Seibert; Poor Jo! by Alfred Lee, EACH WITH LITHOGRAPHED PORTRAITS OF "Jo"; Original Drawing of Russel Court, by Charles Martin, signed; Portraits of Jennie Lee, the impersonator of "Jo"; and newspaper cuttings and illustrations.

UNIQUE AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT OF MATCHLESS INTEREST BEING
DICKENS' MEMORANDUM BOOK CONTAINING SUGGESTIONS
FOR PLOTS, NAMES, ETC. USED IN HIS NOVELS

34. BOOK OF MEMORANDA. Written on 28 pages. Being Rough Notes jotted down just as they occurred to him at odd moments, and embracing Scenes, Conversations, Ideas and Suggestions for use in his Novels; long Lists of Names, many of which were afterwards used by him. In most such cases they are scored out, or marked as having been used. 8vo, cloth, enclosed in crushed red levant morocco case.

THIS PRECIOUS VOLUME is fully described by Forster in the Chapter entitled "Hints for Books Written and Unwritten, 1855-6," which forms pages 245 to 266 of the third volume of his Life of Dickens.

Forster laid great stress upon this Memoranda Book, as showing Dickens' method of work in composing his novels. Those portions of his memoranda which he had used in his novels have been checked or very slightly scored out, and HERE WE SEE THE FIRST INCEPTION of such well-known names as Wegg, Stryver, Lammle, and others.

THIS VOLUME WAS PRESENTED TO MR. & MRS. COMYNS CARE BY DICKENS' DAUGHTER, MRS. KATE PERUGINI, WITH HER AUTOGRAPH INSCRIPTION.

IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE TO IMAGINE A VOLUME POSSESSING MORE PERSONAL TOUCH, OR ONE MORE CLOSELY CONNECTED WITH THE LITERARY LIFE OF CHARLES DICKENS.

[SEE ILLUSTRATION]

35. BROWNE (H. K.). A Collection of the title-pages with Vignette Illustrations, of Dickens' Works, issued by Chapman and Hall [1856-60]. 22 plates. 8vo, half red morocco, gilt top, by Riviere.
London: Chapman and Hall, [1856-60]

36. BULWER (EDWARD, LORD LYTTON). A. L. s., with initials, 2 pp. 12mo, regarding the furnishings of a house he has rented; A. L. s., 1 p. 12mo, mentioning "Pelham." 2 pieces.

37. BUSS (R. W.). A Collection of about NINETY AUTOGRAPH LETTERS, mostly of 3 or 4 4to pages each, chiefly addressed to Joseph Mayer, the Antiquary and Art Collector of Liverpool, dealing in detail with his paintings and etchings and on art subjects generally, amounting ALMOST TO AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY for the years 1836-69. The whole mounted to 4to, unbound.

THIS IS A REMARKABLE COLLECTION. There are PROOF OR EARLY IMPRESSIONS of a large number of his engravings, together with some ORIGINAL DRAWINGS; an Essay on Fresco Painting, etc., etc.

38. BUSS (R. W.). Materials Collected for my Four Lectures on English "Comic and Satiric Art"; also for "English Graphic Satire," and for "An Essay on English Caricature." Caricature engravings by Gillray, Hogarth, Cruikshank, Seymour, Alken and others, SOME IN COLOR: a large number of ORIGINAL PENCIL SKETCHES (including a portrait of Cruikshank), and copies and photographs of caricatures, etc., also ORIGINAL DRAWINGS BY HEATH, together with THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT, mounted in two royal folio volumes, buckram, with specially written titles. 1873 nection the above collection is certainly interesting. The subject of the lectures is exhaustively treated both historically, from the earliest times to the modern "Punch" artists, and by means of illustration. In the introduction the Author sets forth his reasons for bringing the material together, and incidentally remarks that his "Battle of Life" had been a hard-fought one.

LEWIS CARROLL'S OPINION OF "DAVID COPPERFIELD" WHEN A BOY

40. CARROLL (LEWIS). A. L., 4 pp. 4to. School House, May 24, [1849]. To his sister Elizabeth.

A CHARMING LETTER, written to his sister while he was at Rugby. It is very chatty, and on a variety of topics.

"David Copperfield" had just been published and Carroll writes:

"I have read the 1st number of Dickens' new tale 'Davy Copperfield.' It purports to be his life & begins with his birth & childhood: it seems a poor plot, but some of the characters & scenes are very good. One of the persons that amused me, was a Mrs. Gummidge, a wretched melancholy person, who is always crying, happen what will: & whenever the fire smokes or other trifling accident occurs, makes the remark with great bitterness & many tears, that 'she is a lone lorn creatur, & everythink goes contrary with her.'"

41. CENTENARY OF CHARLES DICKENS (THE). A Scrap Book containing several hundred Newspaper Clippings, Excerpts from Magazines and Periodicals, Portraits, a sheet of the RARE CENTENARY STAMPS, etc., etc., mounted in one volume, folio, cloth.

FIRST EDITION.

London, 1912

43. CHARLES DICKENS, ESQ., ON THE LATE EXECUTION. A Letter "To the Editor of the Times." 1 p. 8vo, dated Devonshire-terrace, Tuesday, Nov. 13," [1849]. Inserted among the advertisements of the issue of "The Quarterly Review" for December, 1849.

A hitherto unnoticed Dickens item.

FIRST EDITION. Scarce in this clean condition.

47. CHIMES (THE): A Goblin Story of Some Bells that rang an Old Year out and a New Year in. Engraved frontispiece and title, and woodcuts by MacIise, Doyle, Leech and Stanfield. 12mo, original red cloth, gilt stamp on front cover and back, yellow end-papers, gilt edges, as issued (front cover slightly worn at hinge).

London: Chapman & Hall, 1845

FIRST EDITION, FIRST ISSUE, with the name of the publishers a part of the engraved title.

48. CHIMES (THE): A Goblin Story of Some Bells that Rang an Old Year Out and a New Year In. 16mo, original green pictorial cover, uncut. London: Bradbury and Evans, 1858

FIRST EDITION IN THIS FORM, prepared for Reading. Good clean copy.

49. CHIMES (THE). In Three Peals, dramatized by Edward Stirling. Frontispiece. 12mo, new wrappers, uncut.

London: W. Barth, [1844]

FIRST EDITION in this form. Correctly printed from the Prompt Book.

50. CHIMES (THE). Jullien's Chimes Quadrilles. 7 pp. 4to, cloth. London, n. d.

51. CHIMES (THE). The Chimes Quadrille. Composed for the Musical Bouquet. Engraved heading of the Bells emitting hundreds of Goblins, by Ashley. 4 pp. 4to, cloth.

London: J. Bingley, n. d.

52. CHIMES (THE). Play Bills of Dramatizations by Edward Stirling, C. H. Hazlewood, Mr. Broadfoot, etc., 1844 and later. 6 pieces.

Accompanied by four pieces of Music, with lithographed and engraved title-pages, two in color (one duplicated), and contemporary newspaper cuttings and illustrations.

FIRST ISSUE OF THE "CHRISTMAS CAROL"

53. CHRISTMAS CAROL (A). In Prose. Being A Ghost Story of Christmas. With Illustrations by John Leech, the full-page plates brilliantly colored. Title in red and blue. 12mo, original brown cloth, gilt stamp on back and front cover, gilt edges, green end-papers. London: Chapman & Hall, 1843

FIRST EDITION, FIRST ISSUE, with "Stave I" and all the other points called for by Eckel.

54. CHRISTMAS CAROL (A). In Prose. Being a Ghost Story of Christmas. With Illustrations by John Leech, the full-page plates brilliantly colored. 12mo, original brown cloth, gilt stamp on back and front cover, yellow end-papers, gilt edges, as issued. London: Chapman & Hall, 1844

THE EXCESSIVELY RARE TRIAL ISSUE, dated 1844 but issued in 1843, with the title printed in red and green, the half-title in green, and the error of "Stave I."

There are pencilled annotations in Stave II which would indicate that changes in the text had been contemplated.

55. [CHRISTMAS CAROL.] Dickens (Charles). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Fifteenth May, 1844. To Bradbury and Evans. In regard to "The Christmas Carol." Mentions that Chapman and Hall had on hand on April 30, 1844, 337 copies in quires and 227 copies in cloth.

56. CHRISTMAS CAROL (A), or Past, Present, and Future. In Three Staves. Dramatization by Edward Stirling. 12mo, original blue wrappers. London: William Barth, [1844]

57. CHRISTMAS CAROL (A). In Prose. Being a Ghost Story of Christmas. 16mo, original green wrappers, with vignette by Leech, uncut. London: Bradbury and Evans, 1858

FIRST EDITION IN THIS FORM, prepared for Reading. Very Scarce.

58. CHRISTMAS CAROL (A), or, The Miser's Warning. A Drama in Two Acts. Adapted from Dickens by C. X. Barnett. Frontispiece. 16mo, sewn, uncut. London, n. d.
Dunscombe's Edition.

59. CHRISTMAS CAROL (A). A Facsimile Reproduction of the Author's Original MS. With an Introduction by F. G. Kitton. Royal 4to, boards, vellum back, gilt top, uncut.

London: Elliot Stock, 1890

Covers slightly worn at edges, otherwise a fine copy.

60. CHRISTMAS CAROL (A). Play Bills of Dramatizations by Edward Stirling, J. C. Buckstone, and others, performed at various English Theatres, 1844 and later, 16 pieces, with news clippings and illustrations, mounted.

Accompanied by three pieces of Music, two with lithographed pictorial title-pages.

61. CHRISTMAS CAROL (A). Set to Music to the English Air of "Old King Cole." With drawing by Crowquill. 4to, cloth. Extract from "The Illustrated Book of British Song."

62. CHRISTMAS NUMBERS OF "HOUSEHOLD WORDS" AND "ALL THE YEAR ROUND." 19 numbers, 8vo, sewn, uncut, the last five numbers in blue printed wrappers as issued. Enclosed in green morocco case, lettered on back. 1850-67

FIRST EDITION of each work of Dickens contained in the 19 numbers as follows:

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1850 A Christmas Tree | 1857 The Perils of Certain English Prisoners |
| 1851 What Christmas is as we grow older | 1858 A House to Let: Going into Society |

| | 1865 Dr. Marigold's Prescriptions |
| | 1866 Mugby Junction |
| | 1867 No Thoroughfare |

63. COCKNEY ADVENTURES and Tales of London Life. By Renton Nicholson. With numerous woodcuts, some of which are colored by hand. 8vo, original cloth, uncut (name on title). An imitation of the "Sketches." London: W. M. Clark, 1838

PROMPT BOOK USED BY CHARLES DICKENS

64. COMFORTABLE LODGINGS; A Farce in Two Acts, by Richard Brinsley Peeke. Frontispiece by R. Cruikshank. 12mo, original printed wrappers. London: John Cumberland, n. d.

This copy was used as a Prompt Book by Charles Dickens and his company of amateurs in 1847. It is marked in ink with instructions, and accompanying it is the "Call Plot," 3 pages, in the handwriting of John Willmott (Macready's prompter) who went with the company.

This Call Plot is very interesting, giving the names of the actors, among them being Dickens as Sir Hiss, Leech, Cruikshank, Lemon, Stone, Egg, and Mrs. Caulfield.

65. COVENY (CHRISTOPHER). Twenty Scenes from the Works of Dickens designed and etched by Christopher Coveny. 4to, half morocco, gilt top. Sydney, 1883

FIRST EDITION. FINE COPY of this unusual series of etchings.

66. CRICKET ON THE HEARTH (THE). A Fairy Tale of Home. Engraved title and frontispiece, and numerous woodcuts in the text by MacIise, Doyle, Stanfield, Leech, etc. 12mo, original red cloth, gilt vignette on front cover, gilt stamp on back, yellow end-papers, gilt edges, as issued.

London: Printed and published for the author, by Bradbury and Evans, 1846

FIRST EDITION.

67. CRICKET ON THE HEARTH (THE). A Fairy Tale of Home. 16mo, original green pictorial wrappers (soiled and back worn), uncut. London: Bradbury and Evans, 1858

FIRST EDITION in this form, prepared for Reading.

68. CRICKET ON THE HEARTH (THE). A Fairy Tale of Home. With the original illustrations. 12mo, red cloth, gilt stamping, uncut. London: Chapman & Hall, 1886

Presentation Copy, inscribed on inside front cover: "Mary Boyle from Geo. Hogarth Xmas 88."

69. CRICKET ON THE HEARTH (THE). Play Bills of Dramatizations by Albert Smith, T. Abbott, C. H. Stephenson, and others, performed at various English Theatres, 1845 and later. 28 pieces.

THIS LOT INCLUDES THE VERY RARE BILL OF THE THEATRE ROYAL, LYCEUM, for the performance on December 20, 1845, THE DAY THE BOOK WAS PUBLISHED.

Included with the foregoing are 8 pieces of Music (one duplicate), 6 of which have engraved or lithographed title-pages.

70. [CRICKET ON THE HEARTH.] Dickens (Charles). A. L. s., 3 pp. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Fourth October, 1845. To Clarkson Stanfield.

"I am touched to the quick by the kind heartedness of your letter. Heaven forbid that there should be any of that same dirty metal in the heaven of our friendship, ever! I shall hope in a fortnight or so, to shew you something of the Tale I am thinking still, but have not yet begun."
[In all probability, "The Cricket on the Hearth."]

71. CROTCH (W. WALTER). Charles Dickens, Social Reformer; CANNING (A. S. G.), Dickens Studied in Six Novels. 2 vols., 8vo, cloth. London, 1912-3

72. CROTCH (W. WALTER). The Pageant of Dickens; About Edwin Drood; MENKEN (ADAH ISAACS), Infelicia. (Dedicated to Dickens, with his letter of acceptance in facsimile.) Together 3 vols., 8vo and 12mo, cloth. V. p., v. d.

73. [CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE).] More Hints on Etiquette, for the Use of Society at Large, and Young Gentlemen in Particular. With cuts by George Cruikshank. 16mo, original limp wine-color cloth. London: Charles Tilt, 1838

FINE COPY OF THE SCARCE FIRST EDITION, sometimes ascribed to Dickens.

74. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). The Artist and the Author. A Statement of Facts, Proving that the Distinguished Author, Mr. W. Harrison Ainsworth, is "labouring under a singular delusion" with respect to the origin of "The Miser's Daughter," "The Tower of London," etc. 8vo, sewn. London: Bell and Daldy, [1872]

VERY RARE. This is a pamphlet issued by Cruikshank putting forward his view in the quarrel between Harrison Ainsworth and himself. Cruikshank in this pamphlet reiterates his previous statements that he WAS THE ORIGINATOR OF OLIVER TWIST, which, says Cruikshank, Dickens "did not deny—because he could not."

CRUIKSHANK'S PENCIL SKETCH OF DICKENS

75. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). Original pencil portrait done for the etching, with signatures of both Charles Dickens and George Cruikshank, in pencil. An INDIA PROOF IMPRESSION of the etched portrait accompanies the sketch.

Accompanying this drawing is a most interesting MS. account of the occasion at which the portrait was executed—done on the spur of the moment, at the house of Mrs. Ben Sawyer (the original, it is supposed, of the character in "Pickwick," Mrs. Leo Hunter).

76. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). Autograph Signature, with subscription "I am Yours very truly." For the "I" Cruikshank has drawn a large eye; Carte-de-visite photograph, autographed and dated May 4, 1866. 2 pieces.

77. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). Autograph signature on an envelope addressed to W. H. Harrison.

78. CURIOUS DANCE ROUND A CURIOUS TREE (A). 12mo, full tan calf, gilt top, by Bedford. [London, 1860]
Second issue.

79. DARLEY (F. O. C.). Character Sketches from Dickens. A series of 13 photogravures on Japan paper. 8vo, loose in cloth portfolio. Boston: Estes and Lauriat, 1892

80. DARLEY ILLUSTRATIONS to Dickens' Works. 53 engraved plates, also portrait of Dickens and engraved view of Gad's Hill. Together 55 plates, 12mo. In fine clean condition.

81. DAVID COPPERFIELD (THE PERSONAL HISTORY OF). With illustrations by H. K. Browne. In the Original Parts (20 in 19), 8vo, light green printed wrappers, as issued, uncut, in half wine-color morocco slip case.

London: Bradbury and Evans, 1850

A VERY FINE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION, FIRST ISSUE, with the correct date on the engraved title. The wrappers are in splendid condition, and the parts have the advertisements and slips. This is rather an exceptional copy, with the plates fresh and clean, and on account of the smallness of the issue and the parts being much read and roughly handled, it is one of the scarce works in parts to secure in good condition.

82. DAVID COPPERFIELD. With Illustrations by H. K. Browne. Thick 8vo, full tan calf, gilt back and inside borders, gilt edges. London: Bradbury & Evans, 1850

FIRST EDITION, with the date 1850 on the engraved title. Fine clean copy.

83. DAVID COPPERFIELD. With Illustrations by H. K. Browne. Thick 8vo, original green cloth, uncut.

London: Bradbury & Evans, 1850

FIRST EDITION, FIRST ISSUE, with the date 1850 on engraved title.

84. DAVID COPPERFIELD. A Reading. In five chapters. 8vo, full red levant, gilt top, uncut. Privately printed, n. d.

READING EDITION, EVIDENTLY THE REVISED PROOF-SHEETS BOUND.

85. DAVID COPPERFIELD. Play Bills of Dramatizations by Andrew Halliday, T. Gideon Warren, E. H. Brookes, etc., of "Little Emily," performed at various English Theatres. 23 pieces.

Accompanying the above are two pieces of contemporary sheet music, each with lithographed covers, together with numerous newspaper cuttings, illustrations, etc.

86. [DAVID COPPERFIELD.] Dickens (Charles). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Tavistock House, Second May, 1853. To C. P. Roney.

"A journey to Ireland, occupied as I am at present, would not be much more easy to me than a journey to the moon. . . . I have often felt curious to know whether any remembrances of old times were revived . . . by any parts of David Copperfield."

87. DEATH OF CHARLES DICKENS (THE). A Contemporary Scrap Book of Newspaper Obituary Notices, Portraits, etc., pasted into an old account book, folio, boards. 1870

An attempt to re-gather this ephemeral material would prove almost futile, hence the desirability of such a scrap book for the lover of Dickens.

88. DEATH OF DICKENS. Collection of clippings from London newspapers. Pasted into a 12mo volume, cloth.

89. DICKENS AND DISRAELI. Lithographed Portraits, with a view of Gad's Hill in the background. Small 4to, on heavy boards.

A VERY SCARCE PORTRAIT PLATE, published with the "Tailor and Cutter" for July 1870, as a Fashion Plate.

PRESENTATION SET TO WILKIE COLLINS

90. DICKENS (CHARLES). The Works of Charles Dickens. Engraved titles by "Phiz." Library Edition. 22 vols., 12mo, half red morocco (worn), gilt edges. London: Chapman and Hall, 1858

PRESENTATION SET TO WILKIE COLLINS, with the following inscription written in Dickens' favorite blue ink on Tavistock House embossed paper:

"Tenth November, 1859. To Wilkie Collins. This set of the Library Edition of my books, with affectionate regard. In remembrance of The Lighthouse, The Frozen Deep, and much more. Charles Dickens."

The binding is that used by Dickens for the presentation copies of his books to his personal friends.

91. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. 13 Furnivals Inn, no date. With seal.

A VERY RARE LETTER, written between 1834 and 1837, in which HE MENTIONS HIS FATHER, A VERY RARE OCCURRENCE.

WRITTEN BEFORE HIS MARRIAGE

92. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 4to (July 4, 1835), written on blank portion of another letter by Catharine Hogarth, both horizontally and perpendicularly.

"I have been requested by Catharine (upon my word I don't know why), to communicate the singularly interesting intelligence that I have got two black eyes—naturally and not artificially acquired. . . . It is my earnest hope that no change in Catharine's condition will produce the slightest alteration in the friendship which I am happy to hear subsists between you, unless it be to render it closer and more lasting," etc.

DICKENS' MONODY ON MARY HOGARTH

93. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 5 pp. 8vo. Doughty Street, [Oct. 26, 1837]. To Mrs. Hogarth, Dickens' Mother-in-law. Relates entirely to the Death of Mary Hogarth, to whom Dickens was engaged to be married. Some folds torn, some repaired.

Thanking Mrs. Hogarth for a memento of Mary, he further says: "I have never had her ring off my finger by day or night, except for an instant to wash my hands, since she died. I have never had her sweetness and excellence absent from my mind so long. I can solemnly say that waking or sleeping I have never once lost the recollection of our hard trial and sorrow, and I feel that I never shall," etc.

94. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 4to. Manchester, January 13th, 1839. To Mr. Wilson.

"Have the goodness to strike out the Music to Mr. Ainsworth's song, and to print the song without it, also to restore the passage erased in page 128, beginning 'The Hurricane' and ending 'by the excess of their fears,' " etc. [Ref. Bentley's Misc. Vol. V, ch. 6, p. 127, not 128 as Dickens wrote—also for Music, ch. 5, p. 114.]

95. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 4to. 48 Doughty Street, March 25, 1839. To Henry Colburn.

"Will you make arrangements with some printer for getting on with Mr. Macrone's book? I shall be ready to give out the copy this week."

96. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Fourth May, 1841. To Mrs. Booth.

"I could not bring Mr. Booth to Lord Jeffrey's recollection. . . . I would advise you not to urge the matter in that quarter. . . . I know something of Macaulay and . . . will inclose him Mr. Booth's Memorial myself, but it must have added to it the facts of his apoplexy . . . as it stands . . . the case is not strong enough to attract attention among a hundred others."

97. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, First December, 1841. To Francis Ross. Postponing a trip for a week on account of the "particularly national" weather.

98. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. N. s., 1 p. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Twenty Seventh December, 1841. To Francis Ross. Making an appointment.

99. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Ninth January, 1844. To Dr. George Shrenburgh. Regarding the translation of his books into German. Matted, with portrait.

"My publishers facilitate the German translations of my writings, by sending early sheets to certain German Booksellers. But this is a matter of arrangement between them. The books are translated in Germany, and the enterprise is not mine, or my publishers', but originates with German houses of business," etc.

100. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Seventeenth January, 1844. To William Scholefield. He will be glad to preside at the Birmingham meeting.

101. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Twenty Third April, 1844. To Mrs. S. C. Hall. With a carte-de-visite portrait of Dickens laid down on second sheet.

Thanking her for Chambers's Journal, which is "as congenial to me, generally, as the brown paper packages in which Ironmongers keep nails," and complimenting her on one of her tales, which he has "read with very great pleasure," etc.

102. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. small 4to. Devonshire Terrace, Twenty Third July, 1845. To Edwin Landseer. With envelope, franked.

"I would if I could—but I am tied by the heels—both heels—having engagements and occupations from which I can no more cast myself off to-day than I can cast myself to the top of the church weathercock, which I think I would do, if I could: to get out of the way," etc.

103. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Twenty Eighth July, 1845. To Clarkson Stanfield. In regard to Stanfield's part in a play.

104. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 4 pp. 8vo. 1 Devonshire Terrace, Seventh August, 1845. To Miss Kelly, with envelope, franked.

"Mr. Stanfield and I, met the other gentlemen concerned in our Play (most of them more or less known to you, I believe) last night; and we impressed upon them the ease and privacy of your little theatre, as compared with the Saint James's . . . they very willingly agreed to come to Dean Street, and we purpose playing there on Monday, the fifteenth of next month. . . .

I address you in the least ceremonious form because I have known you in your best spirit for some years; and I feel somehow or other like an old acquaintance."

105. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Fourth September, 1845. To W. Hazlitt.

"I have given our young friend, a note to Beard: which I will back by the strongest personal recommendation. . . . It is very kind of you to interest yourself so actively in the matter," etc.

106. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., with initials, 1 p. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Seventeenth October, 1845. To George Cruikshank. Enclosing him £30 for investment.

107. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. in the third person, 1 p. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Twenty Eighth February, 1846. To Mr. Winston. A business letter.

108. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. 1 Devonshire Terrace, Twenty Fifth July, 1847. To Clarkson Stanfield. Asking Stanfield's permission to allow his name to be used as a member of the Committee for the relief of the children of Elton the actor, who was drowned on the "Pegasus."

109. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Thirteenth December, 1847. To W. Hazlitt.

"If you would like me to write you a letter expressive of my opinion of your capacities and deserts, believe me it will be a pleasure to me to do so," etc.

110. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 4 pp. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, First April, 1848. To Samuel Newton. Reply to an aspiring poet who desired Dickens to use his influence with his publishers in the aspirant's behalf.

A FINE LETTER in which Dickens writes at length to his literary correspondent, though declining his request.

111. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Tenth May, 1848. To Macready. Written "From my Tent in the Garden."

"We are rehearsing at the Haymarket now, and Lemon mentioned to me yesterday that Webster had asked him if he would sound Foster or me as to your intention of having a farewell Benefit before going to America," etc.

112. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. in the third person, 2 pp. 8vo. Broadstairs, Twenty Fourth September, 1848. To Mrs. Scott. Regarding the payment of Income Tax assessment on Urania Cottage.

113. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 12mo. Devonshire Terrace, Twenty First May, 1849. To I. K. Brunel. Friendly letter.

114. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Twenty Sixth March, 1850. To Charles Knight.

"The illustrations of Cheapness are MOST ADMIRABLE. We have opened Number 3 with the Lucifer Match, and I assure you it comes out gloriously," etc.

115. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Office of Household Words, First May, 1850. To P. Meadows Taylor.

"I beg to thank you for your obliging note, and am happy to retain the Mischief-Maker for insertion.

On its publication, a remittance for the amount due you on the usual terms of the Journal, will be made by Post," etc.

116. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., with initials. 1 p. 8vo. Broadstairs, Nineteenth September, 1850. To "My dear Mac." Inviting him to the Haymarket.

117. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. in the third person, 2 pp. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Thirteenth March, 1851. To Mr. Booth. In relation to his purchasing Balmoral House. With envelope.

118. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. in the third person, 1 p. 8vo. Great Malvern, Fifteenth March, 1851. To Mr. Booth. Making an appointment to look at Balmoral House, with envelope, franked.

119. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. in the third person, 2 pp. 8vo. Great Malvern, Twentieth March, 1851. To Mr. Booth. Making Mr. Booth an offer for Balmoral House.

It is perhaps fortunate that this offer was not accepted. Had it been accepted, some of the later books might not have been written, for a large load of gunpowder passing through the Regent's Canal a few years after, exploded opposite the house and wrecked it.

120. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 3 pp. 8vo. Broadstairs, Sixteenth July, 1851. To I. N. Robinson. In regard to Charles Hugo's trial, and refusing to sign a memorial in his favor, as his published expressions, for which he was convicted, formed

"a very dangerous social ground to take."

"I have the honor of knowing his father, whose genius I hold in the profoundest admiration, and for whom I entertain great personal respect."

121. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. in the third person, 1 p. 8vo. Tavistock House, Twenty First February, 1852. To Mr. Toole. Returning tickets which he cannot use.

122. DICKENS (CHARLES). Autograph Letter, written in nautical slang, 1 p. 8vo. To Clarkson Stanfield.

"Yoho old Salt! Neptun' ahoy! you don't forget messmet, as you was to meet Dick Sparkler and Mark Dorfuss on the fok'sle of the good ship Owsel Words Wednesday next 1/2 past 4! Well. Belay my heart of oak, belay. Come alongside the Tavistock same day and hour, 'stead of Owsel Words. Hail your shipmets, and they'll drop over the side and jine you, like two new shillings a droppin into the Purser's pocket. Damn all loblolly boys and swabs, and give ME the lad with the tarry trousers which shines to me like Di'mings bright. H.M.S. Tavistock, 2d January 1853."

123. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Tavistock House, March 28, 1853. To Benjamin Webster. Friendly letter mentioning Lord Lytton.

124. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Guild of Literature and Art, May 10, 1853. To Miss Kelly, with envelope, franked.

"I think it will be best for you to meet us here, if you can, on Saturday. . . . I have taken the St. James's for the 9th of June. Bring as many large names with you, for the committee, as you can."

125. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 6 pp. 8vo, Venice, Twenty Fifth November, 1853. To Georgina Hogarth. With envelope, franked.

A FINE LONG LETTER, recounting his experiences in Italy, and mentioning an amusing meeting with Mrs. Landor. Published in Vol. 1, p. 337 of the "Letters."

126. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., with initials. 1 p. 8vo. Tavistock House, Seventeenth February, 1854. To Mark Lemon, asking for Tom Taylor's address.

127. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 5 pp. 8vo. Tavistock House, Twenty Sixth October, 1854. To John Saunders. Slightly worn in folds.

A FINE LONG LETTER, in which Dickens takes pains to criticize Saunders' Play constructively, and to suggest in detail what corrections he would advise.

128. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Tavistock House, Tenth April, 1855. To Webster. Introducing the Hon. Edmund Phipps.

129. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Folkestone, July Twenty Second, 1855. To E. M. Ward. Letter of thanks.

130. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., with initials. 3 pp. 8vo, Paris, Twentieth April, 1856. To W. H. Wills, on business matters.

As was his custom when writing business letters to Wills, he has a caption for each subject he writes about. In the present letter there is much about "Household Words" affairs; Sala; Macready's Draft; Royal Academy Dinner; Tavistock Ground; and The Tenantry.

131. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., with initials, 2 pp. 8vo. Boulogne, Twenty Second June, 1856. To W. H. Wills. On "Household Words" affairs.

132. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 4 pp. 8vo. H. W. office, Second July, 1856. To Mark Lemon.

A very interesting letter respecting Tavistock House, and relating "a wonderful robbery at Folkestone."

"The new Manager of the Pavilion who succeeded Giovannini had in keeping £16,000 of a foreigner, and bolted with it, as he supposed, but in reality with only £1,400 of it. The Frenchman had previously bolted with the whole, which was the property of his mother. With him to England the Frenchman brought a 'lady,' who was all the time and at the same time, endeavoring to steal all the money from him and bolt with it herself. The details are amazing, and all the money (a few pounds excepted) has been got back," etc.

133. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Boulogne, Twentieth July, 1856. To W. H. Wills.

"You will be amazed to receive letters from Custom House Agents, informing you of a case of wine lying for you at that agreeable public establishment, and proposing to clear it. I have bought it for Macready," etc.

134. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Tavistock House, Christmas Eve, 1856. To William Charles Kent, with envelope.

Declining to sit for his portrait. "Scarcely a week passes without my receiving requests from various quarters, to sit for likenesses, to be taken by all the processes ever invented," etc.

135. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Office of Household Words, Sixteenth March, 1857. Written at the bottom of a Resolution to be offered by him in reference to the case of Mrs. Haydon.

136. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Gad's Hill, Eleventh June, 1857. To "My Dear Hunt." Signed with initials.

"This summer retreat (on the spot where Falstaff ran away) will be my home until the winter probably, but I shall be often in town, and will come to you one day . . . the death of poor Jerrold prevents my naming the day now; I hope to do his family some good, and shall be for a few days overwhelmed with that business," etc.

137. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., with initials, 2 pp. 8vo. Tavistock House, Eighth July, 1857. To Maclise.

"I cannot possibly have given you more pleasure through Richard Wardour, than you have given me through your appreciation of it. . . . The Queen was undoubtedly wonderfully taken. I had a letter on Sunday, of the most unofficial and uncourtly character. She sent for me after the Play, but I beg to be excused from presenting myself in any dress but my own," etc.

The Play referred to is "The Frozen Deep," by Wilkie Collins, first acted at Tavistock House. In July 1857 it was performed at the Gallery of Illustration, for the benefit of Douglas Jerrold's family.

138. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Gad's Hill Place, Fifth September, 1857. To W. F. Sorrell. Nice letter of thanks.

139. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 4 pp. 8vo. Tavistock House, February Third, 1858. To Westland Marston. Congratulating him on the success of his piece "Hard Struggle." With envelope, franked.

"I am at a loss to let you know how much I admired it last night, or how heartily I cried over it. A touching idea, most delicately conceived and wrought out by a true artist and poet, in a spirit of noble manly generosity that no one should be able to study without great emotion."

He goes on to praise the acting, particularly Mr. Dillon's performance, showing with what attention he had followed the piece.

140. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Birmingham, Twentieth October, 1858. To Miss Gibson. Second leaf mounted.

"The energies with which God has blessed me, are not the spasms of an hour. Their vitality and mine will end, I think, together."

Few homes can have more wholesome and loving young faces in it than mine has. Wherever I go, I find myself affectionately cherished in the homes of honest men and women and associated as their friend with their domestic joys and troubles. If I owe a heavy penalty to the knaves and fools, so do all notorious people who are neither," etc.

141. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Office of All the Year Round, Twentieth November, 1860. To Charles Reade. Referring to a letter from Fields. Creased.

"It is clear that nothing can be done now towards our working together, but I shall not relinquish the hope of that good result coming about in its own good time."

142. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., with initials, 2 pp. small 4to. Office of All the Year Round, Twenty Seventh December, 1860. To Georgina Hogarth.

Mentions being indisposed. "It is certainly less cold here than at Gad's Hill, and the pipes are not frozen—which is a great comfort."

143. DICKENS (CHARLES). THE ORIGINAL AGREEMENT for Lord Lytton's "Strange Story," signed by Lytton, Dickens, Sampson Low, Son and Marston, and W. H. Wills. 3 pp. folio, August 8, 1861.

THE ORIGINAL AGREEMENT entered into with Lord Lytton, in which it was agreed that Lytton should "write a story to be entitled 'A Strange Story,' and that the said Charles Dickens and William Henry Wills shall publish the same in the Periodical work called 'All the Year Round.'" There is also a provision for simultaneous publication in America.

144. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Leamington, Second January, 1862. To Georgina Hogarth. With envelope. Written on one of his Reading trips, mainly about household matters.

145. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 3 pp. 8vo. Adelphi Hotel, Liverpool, Twenty Eighth January, 1862. To Georgina Hogarth. Regarding his Readings.

"The beautiful room was crammed to excess last night, and numbers were turned away. Its beauty and completeness when it is lighted up are most brilliant to behold; and for a Reading it is simply perfect. You remember that a Liverpool audience is usually dull, but they put me on my mettle last night, for I never saw such an audience—no, not even in Edinburgh," etc.

146. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. in the third person. Small 4to. Office of All the Year Round, Twenty Sixth March, 1862. Enclosing a check to the Estate of the late Henry Austin, in settlement of his account.

147. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., with initials, 4 pp. small 4to. Office of All the Year Round, Eighth October, 1862. To Wilkie Collins.

A long letter about the Christmas Number; a projected trip to Paris, and concluding with a pathetic account of his visit to Poole.

148. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Gad's Hill Place, November Sixth, 1863. To the Rev. W. C. Sawyer. In regard to placing his youngest son at School.

"He is a shy boy of good average abilities, and an amiable disposition. But he has not yet been quite happy away from home, through having lived a little too long at home with grown people. He has never been a spoiled child however, for we are too fond of children here to make them disagreeable," etc.

149. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Office of All the Year Round. First March, 1865. To Mrs. Kemble.

ON THE CIVIL WAR IN AMERICA. "I am a Southern sympathiser to this extent—that I no more believe in the Northern love of the black man, or in the Northern horror of slavery having anything to do with the beginning of the war, save as a pretence—than I believe that the Davenport Brothers and their properties are under the special patronage of several angels of distinction.

But your daughter's verses are very picturesque and glowing, and I shall be glad to have them in these pages for their own sake," etc.

150. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. in the third person, 1 p. 8vo, Twentieth October, 1865. To Wm. Elliott. Declining to sit for his portrait.

151. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. 6 Southwick Place, Hyde Park, Sixth March, 1866. An interesting letter in which Dickens subtly recognizes his own popularity.

Writing of two servants who have been taken over by the recipient of this letter, he says: "They have been used to take charge of all the luggage. I may mention while I think of it, that Mr. Townsend shall have a packet of my personal cards. He will find them very useful with railway-officials, in obtaining many facilities," etc.

152. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo, Gad's Hill Place, Thirteenth March, 1866. To Mrs. Cornelia Morrison. Replying to her criticism of his remarks condemning many of the sick wards in Metropolitan Institutions. Her letter of criticism, and invitation to Dickens to visit the Institution of which she is Matron, an inspection of which will refute his statements, accompanies Dickens' letter. 2 pieces.

153. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Office of All the Year Round, Thirtieth June, 1866. To Mary Hogarth. Asking her to come to Gad's Hill.

154. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. in the third person, 1 p. 8vo. Gad's Hill Place, Thirtieth July, 1866. With envelope front, franked.

"Happy to see Mr. Cholmondeley Pennell at the Office of All the Year Round."

155. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Eton, Second August, 1866. To S. Arthur Chappell. Regarding terms for a series of Readings.

"I am prepared so to dispose my time and occupations in advance as to read again after Christmas. I will engage with you if you like, to read 40 times at £60 per night and all expenses paid," etc.

156. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Gad's Hill Place, Seventh August, 1866. To S. Arthur Chappell. Making an appointment to go over the schedule for his Readings.

"It seems to me that the best thing we can do, in all new places where there is but one Reading, will be invariably to put up Doctor Marigold and the Trials from Pickwick."

157. DICKENS (CHARLES). 2 A. N. s., with initials, each 1 p. small 4to. Office of All the Year Round, 1867 and 1868. To Georgina Hogarth, with envelope, franked. 3 pieces.

158. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., with initials. 3 pp. 8vo. Shelburne Hotel, Dublin, Fifteenth March, 1867. To Georgina Hogarth. With envelope.

A FINE LETTER IN REGARD TO THE DUBLIN DISTURBANCES.

"There is apprehension of some disturbances between to-morrow night and Monday night (both inclusive) and I learn this morning that all the drinking shops are to be closed from to-night. Of course you will not be in the least uneasy about me. If any commotion occurs I shall instantly stop the Dublin readings," etc.

159. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. No place, Third June, 1867. To S. Arthur Chappell. Acknowledging the receipt of £500 in full discharge for the last series of Readings.

160. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Gad's Hill Place, Fourth July, 1867. To Mrs. Montgomery Atwood. Has three rust holes, affecting a few letters.

Mentions that Mr. Wilkie Collins will be glad to meet Mrs. Atwood on her return to London. "He is in correspondence with Mess. Harper but has settled nothing with them . . . I am exceedingly glad to have been the means of facilitating your affairs with M. Victor Hugo.'

161. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Gad's Hill Place, Seventeenth July, 1867. To John B. Marsh. A friendly letter to a newspaper writer who desires a London engagement.

162. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Gad's Hill Place, Twenty Second August, 1867. To Charles Reade, with envelope, franked. Making appointment for Reade to visit him.

163. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Gad's Hill Place, Eighth October, 1867. To Mrs. Atwood.

"I do not in the least desire that any pressure should be put upon Mr. Wood with reference to his completion of his contract. I am quite content to withdraw the story and regain undisputed possession of it."

164. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Albany, Nineteenth March, 1868. To Georgina Hogarth.

A MOST INTERESTING LETTER relating his trip from Rochester through "water-water-water," owing to Spring freshets over the entire country. Mentions his reservation for his homeward trip on board the "Russia." Written on the last page of a 3 pp. A. L. s. from W. D. Morgan.

It is quite unusual to find an autograph letter addressed to Dickens.

165. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., with initials. 1 p. 8vo. Gad's Hill Place, Ninth August, 1868. To W. H. Wills.

"Like you, I am a little disappointed that you are not better . . . as Sancho says 'Patience, and shuffle the cards.'" He concludes with a mention of chaotic ideas about the Christmas Number.

166. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. small 4to. Office of All the Year Round. Tenth September, 1868. To George Dolby. Signed "The Chief."

"I write with an addled head, at the close of a day's work here . . . I have ordered dinner at the Ship, Greenwich . . . and W'il's swears he will join us."

167. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. small 4to. Gad's Hill Place, Seventh February, 1869. To Robert Broadstairs. Stained, and back gummed. Absolutely impossible to make such an engagement as is desired.

168. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Liverpool, Third April, 1869. To R. S. Bartlett. Declining his offer of a Raven.

"My gardener waged such war with my last raven (on account of his flower-destroying propensities), and that accomplished bird splintered so much carpentry work and achieved so much general desolation about the stable-yard, that, sorely against my will, I was obliged to part company with his kind."

169. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. N. s., with initials, 1 p. small 4to. Office of All the Year Round, Thirtieth April, 1869. To Charles Kent, with envelope, franked.

170. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. small 4to. Office of All the Year Round, Twenty Sixth July, 1869. To Thomas Chappell. Relating how he took another's coat the night before, "including the contents of his pockets," and writes to see if he can get his own coat back.

171. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. small 4to. Office of All the Year Round, Twenty Seventh August, 1869. To Charles Reade. Last leaf has been removed from mount. Friendly letter, mentioning tickets for a boat race, also for the theatre.

172. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., with initials, 1 p. small 4to. Office of All the Year Round, Twenty Sixth October, 1869. To Charles Kent, with envelope, franked. Asking for the return of a book.

173. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Gad's Hill Place, Seventeenth November, 1869. To John Henry Chamberlain. Regarding a speech which he sends corrected and referring to the last sentence, which should be properly capitalized. With envelope, franked.

"My faith in the people governing is on the whole infinitesimal; my faith in The People governed, is, on the whole, illimited."

174. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Gad's Hill Place, Twenty Fourth November, 1869. To George Clowes, with envelope, franked. Regarding composition on one of his books.

175. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Gad's Hill Place, Thirty First December, 1869. To John Henry Chamberlain. With envelope, franked. A charming letter declining an invitation.

"The work I have before me during the next three months is the virtuous cause to which I am so true, and I sacrifice every tempting engagement to it knowing that there is no happy medium between many festivities and none—at least in my case," etc.

176. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. 5 Hyde Park, Seventeenth March, 1870. To Tom Chappell. Thanking him for a gift of two ivories.

"I cannot too strongly express to you both, that our business relations have inspired me with a great personal regard which I hope will long outlive them. If I had thought that our friendship would be in the least diminished by the cessation of the Readings, I should have been cut nearer to the heart than I was the night before last."

177. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. (Place cut away), Thirteenth April, 1870. To Herbert Byng Hull. Thanking him for his book and regretting that they had never met personally.

178. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Devonshire Terrace, Twenty Seventh March. To H. I. Morton. A fine letter in which he expresses his regrets at being unable to attend a meeting of the Associated Mechanics' Institute.

WITH THREE DRAWINGS BY CRUIKSHANK

179. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., with initials. 1 p. 8vo. Fifteenth December, no year. To George Cruikshank. Sending proofs to the artist.

On the last page are three pencil drawings by George Cruikshank, variations of the same subject.

180. DICKENS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 4 pp. 8vo. 48 Doughty Street, Feb. 11, no year. To Charles Richards. Damaged on inner edges.

Regretting that he is obliged to return a MS. on account of its length.

A MATCHLESS EXTRA-ILLUSTRATED "LIFE OF DICKENS"

229. FORSTER (JOHN). The Life of Charles Dickens. 3 vols. extended to six, 8vo, crushed blue levant morocco, gilt backs and sides, gilt tops, uncut; also, a volume of miscellaneous Dickensiana. Together 7 vols. London: Chapman and Hall, 1872-4

FIRST EDITION. EXTRA-ILLUSTRATED IN THE MOST COMPLETE MANNER, WITH ABOUT 250 AUTOGRAPH LETTERS AND PORTRAITS, TOGETHER WITH ALMOST 250 VIEWS AND OTHER PICTORIAL SUBJECTS.

A DESCRIPTION OF THE AUTOGRAPHIC MATERIAL IN THESE VOLUMES WOULD SUFFICE FOR A CATALOGUE OF ITS OWN, hence we can but give such data as will, in a measure, represent the feast of good things inserted between the covers of these precious volumes, and create a desire like that of Oliver Twist's, differing from the latter, however, in that IT MAY BE SATISFIED, without calling for the beadle.

THERE ARE FIVE AUTOGRAPH LETTERS OF DICKENS, the earliest dated Sept. 12, 1841, 3 pp. 8vo, addressed to his brother Frederick, containing a lengthy confession of his political faith as an uncompromising Radical; one of one page; one of 2 pp. in the third person, on "Punch," and AN EXCEPTIONALLY PATHETIC ONE of 2 pp. dated April Nineteenth, 1851, ON THE DEATH OF HIS DAUGHTER DORA, which occurred suddenly while he was about to address the Theatrical Guild.

There are also Autograph Letters by

Gilbert A. A'Becket
Countess of Blessington
Baroness Burdett-Coutts
Lord Brougham
Robert Browning
R. W. Buss
Hablott K. Browne
Frederic Barnard
Wilkie Collins
Mrs. Jane Carlyle
Thomas Carlyle
George Cruikshank
Alexandre Dumas, Père
Benj. Disraeli
George Eliot
King Edward VII

Joseph Grimaldi
Théophile Gautier
Lord Houghton
Victor Hugo
J. P. Kemble
Lord Lytton
John Leech
Walter Savage Landor
John Ruskin
Albert Smith
George Sand
W. M. Thackeray
Queen Victoria
Sir David Wilkie
Marie Wilton (Lady Bancroft)
Edmund Yates

And a host of others.

The Portraits and Views comprise in a most complete fashion those of the persons and places so intimately associated with Dickens and his writings, and the subject plates include many of the inimitable illustrations executed by Cruikshank and others.

With bookplate of A. M. Broadley.

ANOTHER SUMPTUOUS EXTRA-ILLUSTRATED LIFE OF DICKENS TOGETHER WITH HIS LETTERS

230. FORSTER (JOHN). The Life of Charles Dickens. 3 vols. extended to six. London, 1872-4; The Letters of Charles Dickens. Edited by his Sister-in-law and his eldest Daughter. 3 vols. extended to six. London, 1880-82. Together 12 vols., 8vo, crushed green levant morocco, with his crest of a Lion on backs, and early and late portraits in gold, with facsimile signatures, on sides, gilt tops, uncut, by Riviere. With specially printed title-pages. London: Chapman and Hall, 1872-82

A MAGNIFICENT EXTRA-ILLUSTRATED SET, ENHANCED BY THE ADDITION OF 561 PORTRAITS AND PLATES, many of which are on India paper.

So closely was Dickens associated with every one of importance during his lifetime, that an extra-illustrated copy of his own Life prepared with the magnitude of the present offering, at once becomes a PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE TIME IN WHICH HE LIVED. Coupled with his Letters, extra-illustrated in the same extensive manner, with portraits of practically all the important personages and identified with essentially every enterprise for the welfare of the common people, these two become A VERITABLE RECORD OF ENGLAND DURING THE VICTORIAN ERA, of which Dickens WAS NO SMALL PART, BEING TWICE OFFERED A PEERAGE BY QUEEN VICTORIA, refusing it each time, preferring to be the KNIGHT of the great middle class.

231. FORSTER (JOHN). The Life of Charles Dickens. With 500 portraits, facsimiles and other illustrations. Collected, Arranged, and Annotated by B. W. Matz. 2 vols., thick 8vo, cloth, gilt tops, uncut. London: Chapman & Hall, 1911

In point of illustration, this is the best edition of Forster's great biography, which Carlyle said was without a parallel except in Boswell.

232. FORSTER (JOHN). A Collection of over 100 Autograph Letters written to his friend, William Johnson Fox, Preacher, Politician and Author. These letters have been neatly inlaid to 4to, with the original envelopes, and bound in 2 vols., half morocco, gilt edges, by Riviere. 1836-1841

AN INTENSELY INTERESTING COLLECTION OF LETTERS BY THE BIOGRAPHER OF DICKENS, relating to a variety of topics. There are several about Macready, for whom Dickens entertained such warm esteem, and to whom he dedicated "Nicholas Nickleby"; others about Leigh Hunt's Play; Lady Bulwer; and several, as might be expected, RELATING TO DICKENS.

233. FORSTER (JOHN). A. L. s., 4 pp. small 4to. Hampstead Heath, June 7, 1853. To Miss Kelly, with envelope. Regarding his illness and a forthcoming Benefit.

"All goes on well in respect to the Benefit—I heard yesterday from Mr. Dickens (who has happily recovered somewhat from his . . . attack," etc.

234. FORSTER (JOHN). A. L. s., 1 p. 12mo. Kensington, Feb. 1, 1870. To Mr. Kent. With envelope. Asking him to dine with him to meet Mr. Dickens.

WITH DRAWINGS OF DICKENS' MOUSTACHE

235. FRITH (W. P.). A. L. s., 2 pp. 12mo. Sydenham Rise, Nov. 30, 1888. To Col. Grant.

"What I meant in respect of Dickens' moustache was that though the upper lip was covered, the whole of the mouth,—or nearly the whole of it—could be seen." Then follow two drawings of Dickens' moustache and mouth, illustrating what the artist intended to convey.

236. FROST (THOMAS). In Kent with Charles Dickens; The Best of All Good Company, Edited by Blanchard Jerrold: A Day with Charles Dickens; HUGHES (Wm. R.), A Week's Tramp in Dickens-Land. 3 vols., 8vo, various bindings. London, v. d.

237. GAD'S HILL GAZETTE. The Gad's Hill Gazette: a file of 9 Numbers of this intensely interesting and important publication, together with two supplements and four letters, from Henry Fielding Dickens, the "sole editor." The issues are dated—July

The Gad's Hill Gazette.

EDITED BY H. F. DICKENS.

JANUARY th, 1866.

PRICE TWOPENCE.

"WE all must die" is the truest sentence that can be spoken by any human being, and as true as it is with respect to mankind, so is it true with respect to The Gad's Hill Gazette. It must die, and that we fear, very soon; for when the present Editor shall retire from his responsible post, to engage in the more arduous duties of life, there will be no one to succeed him in its management. Its origin is due to S. Dickens Esqre, who first placed it before the Public about six years ago, and who edited it with great vigour for one year. In his time, the Gazettes were written with pen & ink upon common note paper, and sent every week to 5 subscribers. This number has since gradually increased, till now we can number no less than 46 illustrious persons on our list. So also in its appearance. The note paper made way for larger paper, the pen & ink for A Manifold Writer, the latter for A Printing Press, and since this last great addition was made to our resources, we have devoted our whole attention to the improvement and enlargement of the GAZETTE. And yet, with all our trouble, expense and pains; rumours, too true we fear to be disbelieved, have reached our ears, which have filled us with feelings of mingled surprise and anger—We are charged with carrying on this Journal with Mercenary motives, merely for the sake

THE ALMOST UNIQUE "GAD'S HILL GAZETTE"

22, July 29, August 26, with supplement, December, 1865; January 6, January 13, January 20, January 27, with supplement, and February 3, 1866; the final number being the last that was issued. Accompanying this file are 4 letters from Henry Fielding Dickens, two of which are printed and two written, three of them being signed. These letters were written to "subscribers" (this one evidently being Capt. Cavendish Boyle), relating to the publication. Nothing could be imagined more appealing than this boy's newspaper, issued on a hand press by the children of the great novelist, and bearing the unmistakable impress of his influence, encouragement, and occasional contributions.

While a large part of the text in this paper is given up to apologies and encomiums of the newspaper itself, in true amateur style, it also gives the happenings in that fairy realm, the Dickens House at Gad's Hill, enumerating the visitors, the festivities, accidents, and other occurrences. For instance:

"The Poultry in Gad's Hill are in a flourishing condition. They at present number 18 (2 Cocks & 16 Hens). The latter do not now lay many eggs, about 3 or 4 a day. All the Pigeons too, (in number 23 comprising Powters, Fantails, Blue Rocks &c.) are well. All the other animals too, such as Horses and Dogs are well."

The article describing Christmas at Gad's Hill is particularly interesting, and also the account of the railroad wreck from which Dickens escaped. That the great novelist himself condescended to contribute to the Gazette cannot be doubted. The communication signed "Jabey Skinner, The Skinnery, Flintshire," is probably from his pen.

The whole publication is an evidence of the large-heartedness of DICKENS.

[SEE ILLUSTRATION]

238. "GADSHILL PLACE." A Collection of "Dickensiana" pertaining to "Gadshill Place," consisting of the Auctioneers' folio booklet of the property, and including a Ground Plan of the house, an out-door plan of the grounds, and three lithographed views. There is also a silk badge used at the interment of Dickens in Westminster Abbey, with his woven portrait.

AGREEMENT TO WRITE "GEORGE SILVERMAN'S EXPLANATION"

239. [GEORGE SILVERMAN'S EXPLANATION.] Dickens (Charles). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo. Gad's Hill Place, Twenty Seventh February, 1867. To Mrs. Montgomery Atwood.

THE ORIGIN OF THE GUILD OF LITERATURE AND ART

254. GUILD OF LITERATURE AND ART. Play Bill of the Amateur Performance at Knebworth, Tuesday, November 19, 1850. 1 p. folio.

This performance, given in the great hall of Lord Lytton's old family mansion at Knebworth, was really the ORIGIN OF THE GUILD OF LITERATURE AND ART which Dickens was so interested in, and of which he was the Secretary.

Two Plays were given on this occasion, Ben Jonson's "Every Man in his Humour," and Mr. Poole's Farce of "Turning the Tables." Dickens acted in both, with John Forster, John Leech, Augustus Egg, Douglas Jerrold, Miss Hogarth, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Lemon, and others in the cast. Mrs. Dickens was to have taken part, but an accident prevented, and Mrs. Lemon took her place. Dickens was the Stage Manager.

255. GUILD OF LITERATURE AND ART. Invitation issued by Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton to the Private Theatricals at Knebworth, November 19, 1850, to Mr. and Lady Rosa Greville. 8 pp. 8vo, sewn.

This invitation contains not only the Cast of the Two Plays which were presented, but also the EPILOGUE to "Every Man in His Humour," in which the several actors are humorously referred to. This epilogue was written for the occasion by F. P. Delmé Radcliffe. Dickens took part in both Plays.

FIRST PERFORMANCE OF LYTTON'S COMEDY

256. GUILD OF LITERATURE AND ART. Play Bill of the Amateur Performance at Devonshire House, Friday Evening, May 16, 1851. 1 p. folio.

On the occasion of the performance at Knebworth, and the origin of the "Guild," Lytton was induced to write a five-act Comedy for a future performance.

The Duke of Devonshire had offered his house for this performance; a movable theatre was built in the great drawing-room, and the library was turned into a green-room.

The Comedy, "Not so Bad as We Seem," thus had its FIRST PRESENTATION with a brilliant cast consisting of Charles Dickens, Wilkie Collins, Douglas Jerrold, R. H. Horne, John Tenniel, Augustus Egg, Charles Knight, Peter Cunningham, and others. Dickens was the Stage Manager.

257. [GUILD OF LITERATURE AND ART.] Dickens (Charles). A. L. s., 1 p. 8vo. Tavistock House, Seventeenth February, 1852. To David Roberts. Inviting him to join the dinner party of the Amateur Company of the Guild of Literature and Art.

258. GUILD OF LITERATURE AND ART. Engraved Ticket of Admission to the Performance at the Music Hall at Shrewsbury, May 10, 1852. With pictorial representations of Richard Wilson entering a pawn-shop with a painting, and Daniel Defoe emerging from Edmund Curll's bookshop, with a volume of Robinson Crusoe in his hand, after etchings by R. A. Ward. Small 4to (one margin cut into). London, 1851

259. GUILD OF LITERATURE AND ART. Another copy. PROOF on India paper. Inscribed in pencil on margin: "To George Smith Esqre. with E. M. Ward's kind regards."

260. GUILD OF LITERATURE AND ART: The Complete Set of the Original Books of the Guild, comprising: I. The Chairman's Agenda Book; II. The Minute Book; III. The Reports of the Council Meetings Book. Many of the Minutes are signed by Charles Dickens, and many of the Resolutions and Memoranda are in his handwriting. 3 vols., folio, original scored russia, and half roan. 1854

Inserted is a "Bill to provide for the Winding-up and Dissolution of the Guild."

An item of the greatest personal interest in connection with Charles Dickens, as he was the outstanding member of the organization in all its efforts for the betterment of authors and artists.

261. GUILD OF LITERATURE AND ART: Report of the Select Committee, July 14, 1862. 2 printed pages, WITH AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT ADDITIONS BY CHARLES DICKENS. Thin 8vo, full green levant, by Riviere. London, 1863

262. GUILD OF LITERATURE AND ART. Manuscript Resolution in the hand of Charles Dickens, which was offered at a meeting of the Guild, October 20, 1865. A resolution of thanks to the architect for his design, and execution of the work.

Annotated.

284. JUDGE LYNCH (of America). His Two Letters to ~~Charles Dickens (of England)~~ upon the subject of the Court of

302. LITTLE DORRIT. Music. Little Dorrit's Polka, by Jules Norman, with lithograph scene of Arthur Clennam and Little Dorrit; "Floating Away," by John Blockley, with lithograph scene of Arthur Clennam at the river's side, watching the flowers float away. Also a restrike of this lithograph, and newspaper cuttings and illustrations. An original drawing by "Kyd" of Mr. William Dorrit is also included.

ORIGINAL DRAWINGS BY "PHIZ"

303. LITTLE DORRIT. Two ORIGINAL DRAWINGS by "Phiz," signed. Oblong 12mo, on fawn mounts.

TWO FINE DRAWINGS, "The Ferry," and "Floating Away," appearing at pages 146 and 250 respectively. THE LATTER IS ONE OF THE DARK DRAWINGS.

304. LIZZIE LEIGH. A Domestic Tale, from "Household Words." 12mo, original wrappers, uncut. New York, 1850

FIRST AMERICAN EDITION. Although Dickens' name appears on the wrapper as the author, it is now known to be by Mrs. Gaskell.

305. LOCKWOOD (FRANK). The Law and Lawyers of Pickwick; PERKINS (F. B.), Charles Dickens: A Sketch of his Life and Works; DICKENS (MAMIE), My Father as I recall him. 3 vols., 12mo, half calf. V. p., v. d.

London: Chapman & Hall, 1848

Edited by Dickens' chief assistant on "Household Words," this volume is of interest in indicating those articles prepared with Dickens' collaboration.

TWO UNPUBLISHED DRAWINGS BY "PHIZ"

310. MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT. TWO ORIGINAL PENCIL DRAWINGS by Phiz, illustrating incidents in the life of Mr. Augustus Moddle and Miss Charity Pecksniff. 12mo.

A PAIR OF REJECTED DRAWINGS, AND HITHERTO UNPUBLISHED AND GENERALLY UNKNOWN. BOTH ARE SIGNED BY THE ARTIST.

Facing page 521 in the First Edition of this work, is an etching entitled: "Mr. Moddle is led to the contemplation of his destiny," which fails to render the incident of the text with exact fidelity, as a perusal of this and the following pages will reveal.

The two drawings here offered are very dissimilar to the etching and to each other, and SEIZE DIFFERENT INSTANTS OF THE SAME INCIDENT.

These Drawings were formerly in the possession of R. Young, an engraver and friend of "Phiz," who had a picture of his in the Exhibition of Works of H. K. Browne, at the Fine Art Society's Gallery, in 1883.

311. MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT. A Collection of Play Bills of various Performances, from September 30, 1844, two months after the completion of the serial. 15 pieces, also news cuttings and illustrations, mainly mounted.

312. MASTER HUMPHREY'S CLOCK. With illustrations by G. Cattermole and H. K. Browne. In the original 88 Weekly Parts, royal 8vo, sewn, uncut. In morocco solander case.

London: Chapman and Hall, 1840-41

AN EXCEPTIONALLY CHOICE COPY OF THE FIRST ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION IN WEEKLY PARTS, THE MOST DIFFICULT TO SECURE IN PERFECT STATE OF ALL THE EDITIONS OF THIS WORK.

313. MASTER HUMPHREY'S CLOCK. With illustrations by G. Cattermole and H. K. Browne. In the original 20 Monthly Parts, royal 8vo, original green wrappers, uncut (some backs repaired). London: Chapman and Hall, 1840-41

THE RARE FIRST EDITION IN MONTHLY NUMBERS. On the first two numbers, the weekly dates appeared; after that, commencing with June, reference was made to the Numbers of the Weekly Parts. A Nice Copy.

WITH THE SIBSON SERIES OF ILLUSTRATIONS ADDED

314. MASTER HUMPHREY'S CLOCK. With illustrations by George Cattermole and Hablot Browne. 3 vols., royal 8vo, cloth. London, 1840-41

FIRST EDITION with the correct covers, the hands pointing to the proper time on the clocks. Added to the foregoing, is a fourth volume, containing THE VERY RARE SET OF SIBSON'S PLATES to illustrate this work. The hands point to two o'clock on this latter binding, although numbered "4" on the back. A VERY FINE COPY.

302. LITTLE DORRIT. Music. Little Dorrit's Polka, by Jules Norman, with lithograph scene of Arthur Clennam and Little Dorrit; "Floating Away," by John Blockley, with lithograph scene of Arthur Clennam at the river's side, watching the flowers float ~~Master Humphrey's Clock~~ to him.

"I have decided to publish 'Master Humphrey's Clock' in half yearly volumes . . . Have you any objection to my dedicating the book to you, and so having one page in it which will afford me earnest and lasting gratification," etc.

317. [MASTER HUMPHREY'S CLOCK.] Dickens (Charles). A. L. s., 3 pp. 8vo. 1 Devonshire Terrace, Twenty Eighth December, 1840. To Capt. Basil Hall, with envelope, franked.

A CHARMING LETTER IN WHICH HE REFERS TO HIS FINISHING "Master Humphrey's Clock."

After expressing to his brother author the pleasure he has derived from reading "The Gallows and the Guillotine," he writes:

"What can I say to you in acknowledgement of your high commendations of the tale I am drawing to a close—with no common regret and pain I do assure you—for I am loth to finish it—and of the cheering encouragement you give me. It would be idle to tell you that such expressions of interest from thinking and gifted men are a source of the purest happiness and delight. You know that, I am sure, and I cannot thank you enough for your generous applause," etc.

318. MATHEWS (CHARLES). A. L. s., 2 pp.; Tom Hood, A. L. s., 1 p.; Dr. John Elliotson, A. L. s., 4 pp.; W. C. Macready, A. L. s., 4 pp.; and others of Dickens' friends and associates. 8 pieces.

~~THE FIRST PUBLISHED EDITION. VERY SCARCE and practically the only~~

334. NICHOLAS NICKLEBY. Three Portraits of Kate Nickleby, Tilda Price, and Madeline Bray. Engraved by Edward Finden from paintings by Frank Stone. 8vo, wrappers.

London: Chapman and Hall, 1848

Edited by Dickens' chief assistant on "Household Words," this volume is of interest in indicating those articles prepared with Dickens' collaboration.

~~322. NICHOLAS NICKLEBY.~~ 21 Illustrations to Nicholas Tavistock House. The Smallest Theatre in the World! Play Bills of Performances June 18, 1855 and Jan. 6, 1857. 2 pieces, folio.

At these performances were acted "The Lighthouse," by Wilkie Collins; "Mr. Nightingale's Diary," by Dickens; "The Frozen Deep," by Wilkie Collins, and "Animal Magnetism," by Mrs. Inebald. Dickens acted in the last two pieces, at which time the theatre was under his management. The rest of the cast included Wilkie Collins, who acted in both his own plays, Mark Lemon, Miss Hogarth, Miss Dickens, Augustus Egg, and others.

324. MRS. GAMP WITH THE STROLLING PLAYERS. An Unfinished Sketch. With 2 original plates by Pailthorpe, and a fine portrait of Dickens on Japan vellum. Thin 8vo, vellum boards, uncut. New York: Privately Printed, 1899

FIRST SEPARATE EDITION, limited to 85 copies, printed for Lowell M. Palmer. This sketch was to be a humorous version of a "New Piljians Projiss," to be published for the benefit of Leigh Hunt, but the project fell through.

ABOUT "NICHOLAS NICKLEBY"

331. [NICHOLAS NICKLEBY.] Dickens (Charles). A. L. s., with initials. 3 pp. 8vo. Broadstairs, Sunday morning (I mean afternoon). To Mr. Hicks. [1839]

INTERESTING LETTER ABOUT NICHOLAS NICKLEBY.

"I send you 60 slips of copy, and the prefaces. I shall write 105 which will about settle your business—perhaps not more than 100, and perhaps between the two. I hope I MAY finish on Thursday—at latest on Friday—I will send you another parcel before the last, and dispatch the very last one with all possible speed," etc.

CONCERNING THE DEDICATION OF "NICHOLAS NICKLEBY"

332. [NICHOLAS NICKLEBY.] Dickens (Charles). A. L. s., 2 pp. 4to. 40 Albion Street, Broadstairs, September 21, 1839. To W. C. Macready, with franked address. In sunk mount, 4to, crushed red levant morocco, line-tooled back, gilt borders, gilt edges, by Sangorski and Sutcliffe.

A SPLENDID LETTER IN WHICH DICKENS ASKS MACREADY'S PERMISSION TO DEDICATE "NICHOLAS NICKLEBY" TO HIM.

"I am so anxious to prefer a request to you which does not admit of delay, that I send you a double letter—with the one redeeming point though, of having very little in it.

Let me refer to the last number of Nickleby and to the book a dupli.

319. MILLAIS (J. E.). A. L. s., 1 p.; F. W. Pailthorpe, A. L. s., 1 p.; Daniel Maclise, A. L. s., 2 pp. Together 3 pieces.

will be no one line in it, conveying a more honest truth, or a more sincere feeling, than that which describes its dedication to you as a slight token of my admiration and regard.

So let me tell the world by this frail record that I was a friend of yours and interested to no ordinary extent in your proceedings at that interesting time when you shewed them such noble truths in such noble forms—and give me a new interest in, and association with, the labour of so many months."

Bound in with this is an EARLIER SETTING OF THE PRINTED DEDICATION LEAF THAN THAT IN THE FIRST PUBLISHED EDITION OF THE WORK; a portrait of Dickens, by Finden; a typewritten transcript of Dickens' letter, and title and dedication to the First Published Edition of "Nicholas Nickleby."

A MARVELLOUS COPY OF "PICKWICK"

376. PICKWICK CLUB (THE POSTHUMOUS PAPERS OF THE), containing a faithful Record of the Perambulations, Perils, Travels, Adventures, and Sporting Transactions of the Corresponding Members. Edited by "Boz." With illustrations by Seymour, Buss, and "Phiz." In the original parts (20 in 19), 8vo, original green pictorial wrappers, uncut, in full green levant morocco solander case. London: Chapman and Hall, 1836-7

So many "FINEST COPIES" of "Pickwick" have been offered during the last decade that it would seem like a trite application to associate with the present offering. IT IS A COPY WHICH CAN SCARCELY BE EXCELLED IN ALL THE IMPORTANT POINTS SO NECESSARY TO FORM WHAT THE COLLECTOR TERMS "PERFECT."

We give below a collation of this copy, according to Eckel, who states that a perfect First Edition of "Pickwick Papers" must contain a certain number of basic points.

All covers of the parts bear date 1836.

Parts 1 and 2 carry on the covers the words "With Four Illustrations by Seymour."

Part 1 has the four plates by Seymour, BUT THREE OF THEM ARE SIGNED, WHICH IS CORRECT.

Part 2 has the three Seymour plates, signed.

Part 3 has on the cover the words "With illustrations by R. W. Buss."

Part 3 has the two plates signed "Drawn and etched by R. W. Buss," and the page numbers on them.

Part 4 has the two plates signed N.E.M.O.

Parts 2, 3, 10 and 15 have addresses by the author.

Parts 17, 18 and 20 have addresses by the publishers.

Plates in Parts 1 to 11 inclusive have no captions, only numerical references. Parts 12-20 have neither captions nor numbers.

Vignette title has "V" in "Weller."

It will be noted that this collation is according to Eckel, and it must be borne in mind in regard to those plates which we have denoted "second state," that other authorities have disagreed, and esteemed them "first state."

In order that the purchaser may possess the CORRECT PLATE, regardless of the ideas of any bibliographer, A COMPLETE SET OF THE ALTERNATE PLATES accompany the work, on many of which Mr. Jupp has written "The 2d Plate," THUS FORMING WHAT IS PROBABLY THE MOST NEARLY PERFECT COPY OF "PICKWICK" IN EXISTENCE.

There also accompanies this copy, A CIRCULAR ANNOUNCEMENT of the publishing of "Pickwick," which MUST BE A VERY EARLY ADVERTISEMENT, as it states that each Monthly Part will be "embellished WITH FOUR ILLUSTRATIONS BY SEYMOUR." This announcement is of 2 pages, printed in blue, AND IS VERY RARE.

A DICKENS MANUSCRIPT OF UNPARALLELED INTEREST AND IMPORTANCE, BEING A HISTORY OF PICKWICK

384. [PICKWICK.] Dickens (Charles). ORIGINAL AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT relating his creation of the character of PICKWICK, and refuting claims made on behalf of Robert Seymour, the artist. 4 pp. 8vo, written on his Gad's Hill notepaper, and dated Wednesday, Twenty-eighth March, 1866. Addressed to The Editor of the Athenæum. In sunk mounts, and bound in 4to, full crushed red levant morocco, line-tooled back, gilt borders, gilt edges, by Sangorski and Sutcliffe.

A SUPERLATIVE MANUSCRIPT. It is well known, that after the success of the "Pickwick Papers" was assured many statements were made concerning its origin, including the amazing claim by the widow of the artist Seymour that the work was due solely to her husband, both as regards its nature and the character and figure of Pickwick.

Mrs. Seymour coupled with her assertions a most vindictive attack upon Dickens. These allegations evidently caused Dickens, when publishing a cheap edition in 1847, to insert a Preface giving an account of how he came to write "Pickwick." Mrs. Seymour however, in 1854, printed a vituperative pamphlet on the subject, but her friends suppressed its circulation, as it was of a libelous character and most abusive.

Some twelve years later, the controversy re-opened, for in "The Athenæum" dated March 24, 1866, appeared a letter signed "R. Seymour," the artist's son, attacking Bohn the publisher over a new edition of "Seymour's Sketches"; also claiming that the idea and title of "Pickwick" was his father's. This brought forth from Dickens the vigorously worded and exhaustive article "A History of Pickwick," which appeared in "The Athenæum" for March 31, 1866, THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT OF WHICH IS HERE OFFERED.

But two copies of Mrs. Seymour's pamphlet are known to exist. The present volume contains, in addition to Dickens' MS.:

A typewritten transcript of the MS.

Seymour's letter in "The Athenæum," with Bohn's reply.

Dickens' account as printed in "The Athenæum."

A corrected Proof of F. G. Kitton's rare re-issue of Mrs. Seymour's pamphlet, "An Account of the Origin of the 'Pickwick Papers.'"

TWO UNPUBLISHED WELLER VERSES

385. [PICKWICK.] AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT, signed, of Two Verses by Dickens, four lines each, 1 p. 8vo, dated at Liverpool, Twenty Seventh February, no year.

THESE VERSES ARE UNPUBLISHED.

*"I put in a book once, by hook or by crook,
The whole race (as I thought) of a 'feller,'
Who happily pleas'd the town's taste, (much diseas'd)
—and the name of this person was Weller.*

*I find to my cost, that ONE WELLER I lost.
Cruel Destiny so to arrange it!
I love her dear name which has won me some fame,
But Great Heaven how gladly I'd change it!"*

386. PICKWICK. Play Bills of Dramatizations performed at various English Theatres, from 1837 to 1893, together with newspaper clippings and illustrations, contemporary and later. 19 pieces.

AN IMPORTANT COLLECTION, of which no less than six ARE DATED 1837, and ALL BUT ONE are for performances prior to the issue of the last part of the book. Included are three pieces of Music of Pickwick interest.

387. PICKWICK. A Facsimile Set of the Original Plates by R. Seymour and "Phiz" to illustrate "Pickwick Papers." In the 20 parts in 19, 8vo, wrappers.

388. PICKWICK. 32 illustrations to the Pickwick Club, Edited by "Boz." By Samuel Weller [T. Onwhyn]. In the original 8 parts, 8vo, original green wrappers, in silk-lined olive levant morocco box. [London]: E. Grattan, 1837

VERY RARE. The plates in the early numbers signed "Sam Weller," while those in the later numbers are signed "T. O.," with a few without any signature. Some of the plates are a little foxed.

389. PICKWICK. A Collection of Illustrations to "Pickwick" by Heath, Sam Weller (Onwhyn), and Crowquill (Forrester). Bound in one volume, 8vo, original wrappers preserved (some plates foxed). London, 1837 panions, and upwards of 1000 Jokes, Puns, Epigrams, Jeux d'Esprit, etc., including Joe Miller's renowned Jests. With 24 illustrations of Pickwick characters. Thick 18mo, original cloth, gilt back, uncut. London: Orlando Hodgson, n. d.

VERY SCARCE.

398. [PICKWICK.] Buss (R. W.). A. L. s., 4 pp. 8vo, November 19, 1845. To Joseph Mayer. Tipped on mount, with envelope.

A LONG AND IMPORTANT LETTER on the vexed question of the ORIGIN OF PICKWICK, stating that "Seymour originated the Pickwick Club, and his companions, and he also selected Dickens from other Authors, so Dickens and the Publishers certainly are indebted to poor Seymour for the opportunity of fame and fortune to one, and a good fortune to the others."

399. [PICKWICK.] Buss (Alfred). A. L. s., 10 pp. 8vo. St. James' Vicarage, April 10, 1888. With a Buss plate "Miss Martha" inserted.

AN IMPORTANT LETTER GIVING DETAILS OF HIS FATHER'S CONNECTION WITH "PICKWICK," AND AN ACCOUNT OF AN UNPUBLISHED PLATE.

"It was unquestionably a better etching than either of the plates afterwards published, a fact which shows that if the publishers wd. only have had patience and allowed my father to gain some experience he would have attained such a skill as indeed he showed in his after productions," etc.

400. PICKWICKIAN CLUB (THE POSTHUMOUS NOTES OF THE). Edited by "Bos." Illustrated with 120 engravings on wood. 2 vols., 8vo, full tan calf (weak in hinges), uncut. London: E. Lloyd, [1842]

This pirated publication consists of the numbers of "The Penny Pickwick" collected and bound together. Very scarce.

401. PIC-NIC PAPERS (THE). By Various Hands. Edited by Charles Dickens. With Illustrations by George Cruikshank, Phiz, &c. 3 vols., 8vo, original green cloth, uncut.

London: Henry Colburn, 1841

CHARLES READE'S SCRAP BOOK OF LETTERS

411. READE (CHARLES). A Folio Scrap Book containing Autograph Letters, written to Charles Reade, and pasted down in one volume, half morocco, cloth covers.

THIS COLLECTION CONTAINS A LARGE NUMBER OF IMPORTANT AUTOGRAPHS, including Four from Charles Dickens on literary and other matters. Many of the letters have comments written opposite them by Reade, and in a number of cases the comments are lengthy and sometimes critical and caustic. On the page of Dickens' letters, Reade has written simply "Dickens. Eheu!" A SUPERLATIVE EXPLETIVE.

Among other celebrities in the volume may be mentioned: Edwin Arnold, Wilkie Collins; Joseph Jefferson; Ada Isaacs Menken, Mark Lemon, Lord Lytton, Artemus Ward, Mark Twain, Ellen Terry, Miss M. E. Braddon, Winwood Reade, Henry James (Lord James of Hereford), Sir John E. Millais, Anthony Trollope, Wilson Barrett, Emile Zola, Robert Southey, Fanny Davenport, Sir Henry Irving, Victor Hugo, James Russell Lowell, and many others.

In addition to the foregoing there are Autograph Documents and Miscellanea, about 25 pieces, viz: MS. of 4 pp. 4to, in the hand of Wilkie Collins, relating to Charles Reade's works; Copy of Agreement between Ellen Terry and Charles Reade upon her taking the part of "Philippa" in 1874; Part of Speech by Earl Russell, alluding to "Foul Play"; Analysis of Accounts for Peg Woffington and Christie Johnstone, printed on satin; U. S. Currency, with portrait of Lincoln, 50 cents; the same, with portrait of Washington, 10 cents; etc., etc.

Accompanying this scrap book are two volumes of typewritten transcripts of the letters and MS. in the collection.

412. RELIGIOUS OPINIONS of the late Reverend Chauncy Hare Townshend. (Edited with Introduction by Charles Dickens.) 8vo, original green cloth, uncut and unopened.

London: Chapman & Hall, 1869

FIRST EDITION. Dickens was the literary executor of the author.

413. REVIEWS. "The Quarterly Review" for March 1843, containing (pages 502-22) a review of Dickens's "American Notes"; "The Epitomist" for 1854, containing (pages 202-4) a review of Dickens's "Hard Times." 2 vols., 8vo, wrappers and cloth.

414. REVIEWS: Edinburgh Review for January 1845, containing (pages 181-9) Review of "The Chimes"; Hood's Magazine for January 1844, containing (pages 68-75) Review of "A Christmas Carol." 2 vols., 8vo, wrappers and half leather. London, 1844-5

415. RIDEAL (CHAS. F.). Wellerisms from "Pickwick" and "Master Humphrey's Clock"; DUTHIE (WM.), A Tramp's Wallet, (dedicated to Dickens); PIERCE AND WHEELER, The Dickens Dictionary; Dickens's Dictionary of London, 1879, (Edited by Chas. Dickens, Jr.). 4 vols., 12mo, cloth and half calf. London, v. d.

416. RIMMER (ALFRED). About England with Dickens. With 58 illustrations. FIRST EDITION; Kitton (F. G.). The Dickens Country. With 50 full-page illustrations. Together 2 vols., half morocco and cloth. (Ex-library copy, some pages stamped.)

London, 1883, 1905

417. ROBINS (H.). A. L. s., 2 pp. 8vo, Landport, June 21, 1870. Regarding Charles Dickens, and enclosing a tracing plan of Wellington House Academy as in the days of Dickens.

418. ROYAL AND DRAMATIC COLLEGE, for Aged and Infirm Actors and Actresses, etc. 12mo, original glazed wrappers.

London: William Clowes & Sons, 1858

VERY SCARCE. At this meeting, held July 21, 1858, Dickens spoke at length, and offered the Resolution of the Provisional Committee regarding the establishing and building of a Dramatic College.

419. ROYAL LITERARY FUND. The Case of the Reformers in the Literary Fund; stated by Charles W. Dilke, Charles Dickens, and John Forster. 8vo, sewn.

[London: Bradbury and Evans, 1858]

VERY SCARCE. This and the two following pamphlets formed quite a literary duel of that period, and such periodicals as the Examiner and Athenæum gave considerable space to it. Dickens was a member of this fund, with Dilke and Forster. The trio resigned as a protest against the methods used in the distribution of the funds and issued this pamphlet outlining their side of the case.

This statement elicited "A Summary of Facts," which was in turn answered by Dickens and his colleagues, as below.

420. ROYAL LITERARY FUND. A Summary of Facts . . . issued . . . in answer to allegations contained in a pamphlet, etc. 8vo, sewn. [London: William Clowes and Sons, 1858]

Contains a Speech by Dickens at the Annual General Meeting, 1858.

421. ROYAL LITERARY FUND. The Answer to the Committee's Summary of "Facts." By C. W. Dilke, Charles Dickens, and John Forster. 8vo, sewn. London: Bradbury and Evans, 1858

THESE THREE PAMPHLETS ARE VERY SCARCE.

422. SALA (GEORGE AUGUSTUS). Charles Dickens; Wellerisms from "Pickwick" and "Master Humphrey's Clock"; FITZGERALD (PERCY), Pickwick Riddles and Perplexities; ALLBUT (ROBERT), London and Country Rambles with Dickens. 4 vols., 12mo, cloth and half calf. London, v. d.

423. SCENES AND CHARACTERS FROM THE WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS. Being 866 Drawings by Barnard, H. K. Browne, Mahoney, Green, Frost, Thomson, Ralston, French, Dalziel, Fraser, and Sir Luke Fildes. Printed from the original woodblocks engraved for "The Household Edition." Royal 8vo, cloth, gilt top. London: Chapman & Hall, 1907

424. SERGEANT BELL, and His Raree-Show. With woodcuts by Cruikshank, Thompson, Williams, etc. 12mo, original cloth, gilt vignette on front cover. London: Thomas Tegg, 1839

Sometimes ascribed to Dickens.

425. [SHEPHERD (RICHARD HERNE).] The Bibliography of Dickens. A Bibliographical List arranged in chronological order of the Published Writings in Prose and Verse of Charles Dickens (from 1834 to 1880). Small 8vo, loose in cloth cover, uncut. [1880]

426. [SHEPHERD (R. H.).] The Bibliography of Dickens. Another copy, copiously annotated in pencil. Small 8vo, red cloth, uncut (loose in binding).

427. [SKETCHES BY BOZ.] WATKINS TOTTLE, and Other Sketches, illustrative of Every-Day Life and Every-Day People. By Boz. 2 vols., 12mo, original boards, brown cloth backs, paper labels. Philadelphia: Carey, Lea & Blanchard, 1836

FIRST AMERICAN EDITION OF THE FIRST SERIES of "Sketches by Boz." Piece cut from top of title-pages, and pages somewhat damp-stained. EXCEEDINGLY RARE.

428. SKETCHES BY "BOZ," Illustrative of Every-Day Life and Every-Day People. 26 illustrations by George Cruikshank.

First Series, 2 vols., dark green cloth; Second Series, pink cloth.
Together 3 vols., 8vo, uncut. London: John Macrone, 1836-7

FIRST EDITIONS in original bindings, and FIRST ISSUES, the engraved title of the Second Series, bearing date of 1836, and the printed title, 1837. In this copy there is only one plate of "Vauxhall Gardens by Day," used as a frontispiece. The plate "Mr. Minns and his Cousin" is correctly placed at p. 63, and is not called for in the List of Illustrations. Autograph of H. Heath on half-title (pasted over). The plates in the First Series are stained.

429. SKETCHES BY BOZ, Illustrative of Every-Day Life, and Every-Day People. The Second Edition. Illustrations by George Cruikshank. 2 vols., 8vo, original green cloth, uncut.

London: John Macrone, 1836

Second Edition of the First Series, with the Additional Preface. Name on titles.

REMARKABLY FINE COPY OF "SKETCHES BY BOZ" IN PARTS

430. SKETCHES BY BOZ, Illustrative of Every-Day Life and Every-Day People. With 40 illustrations by George Cruikshank. A New Edition, Complete. 8vo, in the 20 original parts, pink printed wrappers, the front wrappers bearing a design by George Cruikshank, uncut, as issued. In cloth case.

London: Chapman & Hall, 1837-9

FIRST OCTAVO EDITION IN THE ORIGINAL PARTS. Of the greatest rarity. Undoubtedly the scarcest Dickens publication in parts. The present copy is in remarkably fine condition, every wrapper being clean and unopened.

Part II contains the EXCEEDINGLY RARE ADDRESS apologizing because there was less printed matter in the Parts than there was in "Pickwick."

Part V contains the 3-page proclamation signed "Boz," announcing "Nickleby" and threatening dire vengeance against those pirates who were imitating the author's publications.

PROBABLY THE FINEST COPY IN EXISTENCE.

UNIQUE AND INTERESTING COPY OF "SKETCHES BY BOZ"

431. SKETCHES BY BOZ, Illustrative of Every-Day Life and Every-Day People. Illustrated with 40 plates by George Cruikshank, 13 of them being specially done for this edition. SPECIAL COPY, interleaved throughout and extended to 2 vols., with valuable annotations by the well-known bibliographer of Dickens, Richard Herne Shepherd. 2 vols., 8vo, full olive morocco extra, gilt backs and inside borders, gilt tops, by Tout.

London: Chapman & Hall, 1839

FIRST COMPLETE EDITION. Mr. Shepherd, in his extremely legible hand, has recorded with remarkable precision and detail the history and progress of the publication of the Sketches. His records run to 8 pages preliminary and notes throughout the book. His research has rescued from periodicals many passages and phrases sometimes of considerable length, which though not reprinted by Dickens are of great interest.

Mr. Shepherd's introductory notes give the order of time and place of the Sketches as they appeared in periodicals in 1833-6.

432. SKETCHES BY BOZ, Illustrative of Every-Day Life and Every-Day People. New Edition, Complete. With 40 illus- trations by George Cruikshank. Thick 8vo, original brown cloth, uncut. London: Chapman & Hall, 1839

FIRST OCTAVO EDITION. The advertisements at end are dated Sept. 1846, proving that the entire edition was not bound up upon publication.

433. SKETCH BOOK (THE). By "Bos," containing a great number of Highly Interesting and Original Tales, Sketches, &c., &c. With 17 engravings, being woodcuts colored by hand. 8vo, full tan polished calf, gilt back and inside borders, gilt top, by Riviere. London: E. Lloyd, n. d.

With original verses in a contemporary hand on flyleaf at end.

434. SKETCHES OF YOUNG LADIES. By "Quiz." With 6 illustrations by "Phiz." 16mo, original green pictorial boards (slightly repaired on back). London: Chapman and Hall, 1837

FINE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION. Very Scarce in the original boards.

435. SKETCHES OF YOUNG LADIES. Third Edition. 16mo, original green pictorial boards (rebacked).

London: Chapman and Hall, 1837

436. SKETCHES OF YOUNG GENTLEMEN. Dedicated to the Young Ladies. With six illustrations by "Phiz." 16mo, original green pictorial boards (slight repairs).

London: Chapman and Hall, 1838

NICE CLEAN COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION. Scarce.

437. SKETCHES OF YOUNG COUPLES. With six illustrations by "Phiz." 16mo, original green pictorial boards, rebacked. London: Chapman and Hall, 1840

FIRST EDITION. Nice copy.

438. STANLEY (ARTHUR PENRHYN). Sermon Preached in Westminster Abbey, June 19, 1870, being the Sunday following the Funeral of Charles Dickens. 8vo, wrappers. London, 1870

STEVENSON'S PERFECT TRIBUTE TO DICKENS

439. STEVENSON (ROBERT LOUIS). A. L. s., 7 pp. 8vo. Barmouth, undated, but day by day, in diary form.

A MATCHLESS LETTER IN WHICH STEVENSON PAYS TO DICKENS THE FINEST TRIBUTE FROM ONE AUTHOR TO ANOTHER.

"I wonder if you ever read Dickens' Christmas Books? I don't know that I would recommend you to read them, because they are too much perhaps. I have only read two of them yet, and I have cried my eyes out, and had a terrible fight not to sob. But, O, dear God, they are GOOD—and, I feel so good after them, and would do anything, yes and shall do everything, to make it a little better for people. I wish I could lose no time; I want to go out and comfort some one; I shall never listen to the nonsense they tell me, about not giving money—I SHALL give money; not that I haven't done so always, but I shall do it with a high hand now. O what a jolly thing it is for a man to have written books like these books, and just FILLED people's hearts with pity," etc.

[SEE ILLUSTRATION]

Barnmouth Tuesday.

 Consider if you ever read Dickens's Christmas Books? I don't know that I would recommend you to read them, because they are too much for you. I have only read two of them yet, and I have cried my eyes out, and had a terrible fight not to sob. But O dear God, they are good - and I feel so good after them, and would do anything, yes and shall do anything, to make it a little better for people. I wish I could live no time; I want to go out and comfort some one; I shall never listen to the nonsense they tell me, about not giving money - I shall give money; not that I haven't done so always, but I shall do it with a high hand now. O what a jolly thing it is for a man to have written books like these books, and just filled people's hearts with pity.

It is raining here; and I have been walking at John Knox, and at the hand-stay I have in hand, and walking in the rain. Do you know this stay of mine is terrible; I am weak at it by fits and starts, because I feel as if it were a sort of crime against humanity - it is so cruel.

Wednesday.

I saw such nice children again today: one
